Carter aides seek ways to boost job program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration already is looking for ways to beef up its jobs program if Congress demands more jobs than the President suggested, says Labor Secretary Ray Marshall.

A government-wide survey is underway to determine how many people can be put to work in public service jobs and training programs in the shortest time possible, Marshall revealed in an interview Friday.

"That way," he explained, "if Congress came back three or four months from now and said, 'We think you ought to expand by this amount,' then by that time I hope to have the hard evidence available to go to them and say, 'Well, here are the implications of that.'

"If we concluded that we can do it, then I could say, 'Yes, sir, we can do it!'"

Marshall said he has asked the Agriculture and Interior departments how many people can be put to work in the national forests and parks, and asked the Transportation Department to determine how many people can work on repairing railroad track beds.

He said energy chief James Schlesinger has been asked about the possibility of putting people to work "weatherizing and winterizing the homes of low income persons, particularly the elderly."

In the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, he said, "there are all kinds of ways of expanding the labor force and making it meaningful," including the possibility of hiring jobless workers as teachers' aides.

The secretary gave no indication that Carter would veto an expanded jobs program. On Thursday, Charles Schultze, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, said the possibility that Carter's economic advisers would recommend a veto would grow with the size of any additions made by Congress.

Democratic congressional leaders have indicated they will probably approve an economic stimulus program larger than the President's proposed $31.2 billion package of tax cuts and spending.

The additions are expected to take the form of bigger outlays for puolic works, public service jobs and revenue sharing with state and local governments.

Under Carter's proposal, the number of federally funded public service jobs would be raised from 310,000 to 600,000 by the end of fiscal 1977 next Sept. 30, and to 725,000 during fiscal 1978.

Some 346,000 jobs would be added to various training and employment programs under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act.

Regardless of what size program Congress approves, Marshall said he is trying to develop "a flexible expansion system" to provide jobs "so that you don't get caught with the need" in times of high unemployment.

New blizzards trap thousands

By The Associated Press

Heavy snow borne by 60-mile-an-hour winds ripped across the nation's midsection Friday, trapping thousands of persons in their homes or offices and stranding thousands of motorists from Michigan to West Virginia.

The blizzard forced factories, offices and schools to shut down, but highways were often too blocked by snow and ice to allow travel home.

Buffalo, N.Y., on the eastern shore of Lake Erie, reeled under yet another winter storm. The Weather Service said 4 inches of snow fell on Friday, bringing the total accumulation on the ground to a staggering 37 inches.

Buffalo streets were clogged by snow and by stranded cars, trucks and buses. The National Guard was called out to clear routes for firefighters trying to get to a house fire. Most of the firemen got through, but the blaze spread to six houses. No injuries were reported.

Thousands of people spent the night in office buildings in downtown Buffalo. Three men were found dead in their stalled cars, but authorities said the men did not freeze and apparently died of heart trouble.

As the storm bore down on West Virginia, Gov. Jay Rockefeller took to the emergency broadcasting system to ask all residents to seek immediate shelter.

"Don't travel anywhere. Establish a buddy system," he warned as visibility dropped to zero and temperatures to about the same level.

A fleet of 23 snowmobiles struck out from Renssalaer, Ind., to attempt to rescue some 400 persons stranded in subzero weather on Interstate 65 north of Lafayette.

State police said up to 300 vehicles were stranded, including three buses carrying a total of 85 passengers. One of the buses, out of gasoline, could not even keep its engine running to provide heat, officials said.

The blizzard, which more than met National Weather Service definitions of winds at 35 miles per hour and drifting snow for at least three hours, meant more trouble for the already hard-hit East, Midwest and South.

Frigid temperatures for a second week and cutbacks by natural gas suppliers already have overtaxed fuel reserves in most areas east of the Rockies. An estimated 400,000 persons remained laid off from their jobs, especially in such energy-starved states as Ohio, Pennsylvania and Kentucky. The blizzard also boosted already near-record demand for energy to keep homes warm, and readings were expected to continue near and below zero through the weekend.

Four traffic deaths Friday in Minnesota were blamed on the storm. Wind-chill readings of minus-83 degrees prompted weathermen in the state to urge an end to travel and outdoor activity because of the potential of frostbite.

Carter demands tighter control of nuclear supplies

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter has ordered stricter controls on the sale of all nuclear technology and supplies, meaning a continued delay in an overdue shipment of uranium ore to India will result, U.S. officials said Friday.

White House Press Secretary Jody Powell said Carter denied that he had issued any new order to further delay the shipment to India, which has been held up for study for several months.

In a statement, Powell said an earlier report by The Associated Press that the President had ordered a stop to the uranium shipment was incorrect and "the sources at the State Department who reportedly made such a statement are clearly misinformed."

Powell also quoted Secretary of State Cyrus D. Vance as denying he had promised the Indians that the matter would get high priority. Indian sources had reported receiving such an assurance.

The directive on stricter control of nuclear material is pending a review of over-all U.S. policy to check the spread of nuclear arms.

It came in the face of informal Indian warnings that the Tarapur nuclear power plant has less than one month's fuel left if a shutdown is to be avoided. Such a shutdown, the Carter administration has informally been advised, would disrupt the civil, industrial and agricultural life of Bombay and its surroundings with immeasurable human and economic consequences.

There was some evidence, meantime, that administration officials differed over the issue of fulfilling the American commitment to supply Tarapur with its needs for non-weapons-grade uranium. The commitment was written into a 30-year contract signed in the 1960s.

TV's 'Chico' given chance to survive

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Television comedy star Freddie Prinze's chances to survive the bullet he put through his head have improved, a friend says, but the 22-year-old entertainer was still near death.

"When they brought him in this morning, they said the chances were one million to one," family friend Paul Wasserman said Friday night. "Now they tell us it is one hundred to one."

Prinze, at the peak of his career as the star of the NBC television hit "Chico and the Man," reportedly was despondent over marital problems, a lawsuit and a misdemeanor charge for driving while under the influence of drugs.

He shot himself in the head early Friday while his business manager was with him. The shooting ended hours of attempts by Prinze's psychiatrist and others to help him relieve his despondency.

'HOME' IN PALM SPRINGS

Former President and Mrs. Ford wave to a crowd of their new home-town neighbors Friday after arriving at the airport in Palm Springs. The Fords will stay at the home of Leonard K. Firestone, former ambassador to Belgium, until their lease begins on their new home Tuesday. Firestone's home is near the 13th fairway of Thunderbird C.C.

548,000 kept off-job by icy weather

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Power Commission said Friday that interstate gas pipelines report an estimated 8,900 industrial plants are closed and 548,000 workers are laid off because of natural gas shortages combined with cold weather.

The situation may well get worse with a renewed cold wave heading east, the FPC warned.

"Extremely cold weather is headed for the eastern U.S. this weekend and will cause heavy drawdown of already weakened underground storage reserves," said the FPC report.

It said there is a danger that the shortage could eventually cut into "Priority One" deliveries of natural gas to homes, essential public services, and plants threatened with damage in the absence of gas.

"Continued storage drawdown with resultant loss of daily deliverability, combined with inadequate propane supplies for distribution peak shaving, may result in loss of priority one service later in the winter, unless supplies are increased or substantial conservation effected," it said.

The latest FPC estimates marked a sharp increase from the 400,000 estimated layoffs earlier in the week.

FPC analyst Joseph Solters said in an interview that the new total could include some overlapping reports by different pipelines of the same plant closings, but there was no way to know whether this was so.

On the other hand, the reports were incomplete and probably omitted some closings and layoffs, a factor tending to counteract any overlaps.

But no casualties reported

Eight bomb blasts rock London

LONDON (AP) — Eight bombs exploded in a central London shopping district early today, starting fires at Selfridge's department store and a jewelry shop but causing no casualties.

Jim Nevill, head of Scotland Yard's anti-terrorist squad, told reporters officers detained two men for questioning after they were seen "acting suspiciously" in the area of the blasts.

Hundreds of police and bomb squad experts poured into the area around Oxford Street, one of London's main shopping thoroughfares, where the blasts started erupting shortly after midnight local time.

"It's almost a case of pick a street and you'll find a bomb," said a policeman at the scene.

The area is about 1½ miles west of the Central Criminal Court, familiarly known as the Old Bailey. Four Irishmen are on trial there — accused of seven killings, bombings and other terrorism in the British capital in 1975.

"We do not know if there are any political connections at this stage," police said.

The explosions are believed to have been caused by powerful incendiary devices. An ambulance spokesman confirmed there were no casualties and added, "A lot of people seem to have been very lucky."

Police reports spoke initially of three explosions, then of five.

94-year-old actor Burt Mustin dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Burt Mustin, one of Hollywood's oldest and busiest actors, died Friday at the Glendale Manor Hospital in Glendale, a family spokesman said.

Mustin would have been 95 years old on Feb. 8. He did not become an actor until he was 60.

His last show was his wedding to Mother Dexter on the "Phyllis" television show aired on Dec. 13 on CBS. He also appeared on the engagement show Dec. 6.

Judith Lowry, who played Mother Dexter, died at 86 in New York City on Nov. 29.

"This is it," Mustin told friends during the filming. "I've had it. But it's a classy way to go."

Mustin appeared in more than 350 television shows and more than 85 movies, including "Detective Story," "Sex and the Single Girl," "Bus Stop" and "Son of Flubber."

Mustin was born in Pittsburgh on Feb. 8, 1882, and was a salesman most of his life. He said he was the announcer on the first weekly variety show ever broadcast, on pioneer radio station KDKA in Pittsburgh in 1921.

BURT MUSTIN

His first acting was an appearance in "Detective Story" at the Sombrero Playhouse in Phoenix, Ariz., where producer William Wyler told him to look him up if he ever got to Hollywood.

He did look up Wyler and was cast as the crotchety janitor in the film version of the play.

'Roots' blamed for school riots; 18 are jailed

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A school official blamed the television show "Roots" for fights at Hot Springs High School on Friday. The school was closed early and 18 students were arrested.

Three minor injuries were reported, police said.

Fighting broke out in the school's parking lot before classes began, and during the lunch period in the cafeteria, Superintendent Dr. Bruce Meeks said.

City and state police were called to end the disturbance.

Meeks said about one-quarter of the schools 1,250 students are black.

Meeks said tension had been building in the school since "Roots," the ABC television program based on a book of the same name by Alex Haley, began Sunday evening. The book traces the life history of a black slave brought to America.

Police said the students were arrested on a variety of charges, such as disturbing the peace and disobeying an officer. The 18 were turned over to juvenile authorities, they said.

"Roots is pretty heavy for teenagers, some of them — blacks and whites — can't handle it," Meeks said. "Feelings have been building up since the show began. We began feeling the vibrations as early as Tuesday. Kids were calling each other names, and teachers were reporting problems."

Erma Hendrix, president of the Arkansas NAACP, said she was "appalled" that Meeks was blaming "Roots." She said more programs like "Roots" are needed to reveal the truth about blacks in America.

Meeks said the high school will reopen Monday with police officers on duty on the school grounds.

San Dimas honor

'Citizen' award goes to Maxine Terrell

Maxine Terrell, a resident of San Dimas for over 30 years, was named "Citizen of the Year" Friday night at a San Dimas Chamber of Commerce recognition dinner held at the Via Verde Country Club.

Last year's recipient, Ted Glauthier, presented the award to Mrs. Terrell who was honored for her many years of civic involvement and community service.

Los Angeles County Supervisor Pete Schabaram was the featured speaker at the well-attended event.

Mrs. Terrell's volunteer service to the area goes back to 1946 when she and her family first moved to San Dimas. She then did work with local churches and the PTA.

In 1952, she helped organize the San Dimas Woman's Club, serving as president in 1960 and 1961. She worked to establish an area blood bank in conjunction with the American Red Cross and has been active in many fund-raising drives of the Club.

Some of her numerous other activities include: past-president of the San Dimas Coordinating Council and the McKinley Boy's Home Auxiliary, founding of the Youth Employment Agency at Bonita High School and the Well Baby Clinic in San Dimas, serving on the board of directors of the Pomona Family Service, American Red Cross, San Dimas Planning Commission, San Dimas Bicentennial Commission, Regional County Library Board, East San Gabriel Valley Planning Commission and was Christmas Basket chairman for two years.

In addition, Mrs. Terrell has received a number of awards for outstanding community service including: 1975 Progress Bulletin "Woman Achiever" award, March of Dimes 10 year pin, two service awards from the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors and others from the City of San Dimas.

Mrs. Terrell lives in San Dimas with her husband, Charles. Their son, Dr. Charles S. Terrell Jr., is Superintendant of the San Bernardino School District.

Man in knifing gets probation

Russell George Wallace, 20-year-old Azusa man ruled guilty of voluntary manslaughter in the fatal stabbing Sept. 10 of 50-year-old Elmer Dane Burns, has been granted three years' probation by Pomona Superior Court Judge Howard D. McClain.

The judge made a 180-day county jail term a condition of Wallace's probation and denied him a new trial. Wallace originally was charged with murder. McClain ruled him guilty of the lesser offense in a non-jury trial.

Burns was stabbed to death on an Azusa liquor store parking lot where he had gone to aid his daughter who had had a flat tire on her car. Police said the stabbing was a result of an altercation which began in traffic while both men were driving on Azusa Avenue.

Murder for pay trial set

The second murder-conspiracy trial of Rowland Heights insurance broker Samuel H. Brooks, 47, has been scheduled for April 4 in Van Nuys Superior Court.

Brooks is accused of hiring the murder last February in Calabasas of a Calabasas private detective. The victim, Michael Kenny, 38, was shot from ambush as he arrived home the night of Feb. 14.

Brooks was implicated in the slaying by an Indio man who pleaded guilty to the murder and told sheriff's detectives that Brooks paid him to kill the victim, investigators said. Brooks' accuser since has been sentenced to a life term in prison.

According to detectives, the killer, Arthur Rohweder, 40, told them that Kenny had borrowed money from Brooks and had stopping making payments. They described Brooks at the time as "the apparent king-pin of loansharking in the Southland."

At Brooks' first trial, the jury found him guilty of a usury charge, but could not agree on the murder or conspiracy counts.

Pomonan, 23, faces 2nd trial in woman's death

Gregory Thomas, 23-year-old Pomonan charged with burglary, rape and murder in the slaying in 1975 of a 78-year-old woman, faces his second trial in connection with the murder Wednesday in Los Angeles Superior Court.

Thomas was convicted of all three counts and then recommended for the death penalty by a Pomona Superior Court jury which heard both the guilt and penalty phases of his trial. But, the trial judge, Robert M. Takasugi, set aside both decisions on a defense claim of new evidence and granted Thomas a second trial. Takasugi since has been appointed to the federal court bench.

The victim, a former missionary nurse, was stabbed to death in her small home in April of 1975. Thomas, arrested several days later, claimed he found the victim dead on the floor when he and a companion went to her home to get a television set the friend claimed was his.

The trial was transferred into Los Angeles because of its expected length.

Pilot, 48, 'ends it all' with crash into sea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An airplane salesman apparently committed suicide by pushing his twin-engine aircraft into a screaming 10,000-foot power dive into the Pacific, the Coast Guard said Friday.

"It's all over. I'm going in," Edward Beroza, 48, was quoted as saying over the airplane's radio Thursday night before he methodically counted the feet as his Piper Cherokee dove into the ocean 150 miles offshore.

The Coast Guard searched for wreckage but found no debris. A spokesman in San Francisco said the aircraft probably disintegrated on impact because of the tremendous speed. "We consider the case closed."

Beroza, who lived in Cupertino, went to San Jose Municipal Airport Thursday night and took off without permission in the small aircraft, police said.

Family friends said Beroza apparently was distraught over financial problems.

Murder suspect dies from wounds

A Valinda man, free on bail while awaiting trial in Pomona Superior Court on a murder charge, has died of a head injury suffered in a gang fight, sheriff's deputies reported.

As a result, the murder charge against the man, Carlos Holguin, 26, has been dismissed by Judge Howard D. McClain.

Holguin was accused of murder in the fatal wounding May 2 of Jose Alfaro, 18, who was shot during a gang confrontation that day during a Cinco de Mayo fiesta at Bassett Park. Holguin himself was hit on the head with a tire iron during a gang fight in East Los Angeles Dec. 17 and died later at County-USC Medical Center, investigators said. A 22-year-old East Los Angeles man, Fred Chico, was being held in connection with Holguin's death.

2 jailed in robbery of western store

Two suspects have been arrested in connection with the robbery Tuesday afternoon of the Branding Iron, a western wear shop at 2055 Foothill Blvd. in La Verne.

They are Ronnie Gene Collins, 25, of Montclair, and Robert Valadez, 29, of Pomona.

La Verne Police Detective Charles Andreu said the pair was arrested as the result of information gathered following the robbery by officers of burglary task force, an organization of policemen from several departments whose function is to prevent burglaries.

In the robbery, two men, one armed with a sawed-off shotgun or rifle, robbed the store of cash and several articles of clothing.

The suspects were arrested Thursday in Pomona.

Sniper is sentenced

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A man was sentenced on Friday to three life terms for the sniper slayings of three persons who were gunned down last summer by a rifleman atop a downtown hotel.

Michael R. Soles, 19, of Sand Springs, Okla., was convicted Jan. 14 of the three slayings.

Judge Tom Raum of the Sedgwick County District Court also imposed sentences of from five to 20 years on nine charges connected with the wounding of seven people in the 15 minutes of gunfire last Aug. 11 and a struggle with a policeman when he was overpowered.

Heroin instead of methadone? won't work, says county official

"If a clinic tried going into a heroin maintenance program, it would attract every heroin addict for miles around," said Myron Horn, program manager for the San Bernardino County Department of Mental Health's methadone maintenance clinic.

Horn had no argument with the popularity of a heroin maintenance program, his only objection was that it wouldn't work.

He was responding to a recent grand jury's suggestion that heroin be used instead of methadone in county maintenance programs for drug abusers.

"Methadone isn't a drug of choice for heroin addicts," Horn said. "They don't get the highs they get with heroin. It's desirability on the streets is low.

"Obviously, heroin is a drug of choice. The potential for heroin diversion to the streets would be phenomenal."

Horn added that, because of the diversion problem it would be impossible to allow "take-homes" in the program.

"This would mean that an addict on maintenance would have to show up at the clinic every four to six hours for his medication."

Under the present program, addicts who are doing well are allowed take-home doses of medication. One dose of methadone will last 24 to 36 hours.

"If an addict has been doing well and wants to go out of town for the weekend, we can give him two doses — enough to last until he gets back on Monday morning," said Horn.

Methadone is taken orally. Heroin would have to be injected, and the addict would have to receive medication every four to six hours.

"Take-homes under this type of system would be impossible. Consequently, it would literally be impossible for the addict to lead any kind of normal life."

A major objective of the maintenance program, said Horn, is to bring the addict's life into a semblance of normality.

"We want him to work and play, raise his family . . . become an active productive member of his community. With methadone, this is possible. With heroin, it wouldn't be.

"I just can't picture an addict's boss telling him to go take his heroin break once or twice a day."

One of the points raised by the grand jury was the methadone withdrawal is worse than heroin withdrawal.

"Not true," Horn said. "It takes longer because it lasts longer. The symptoms are basically the same."

He added that the effect of methadone begins slowly and is slow to drop. It is this characteristic that allows the client to stay relatively stable over a 24 to 36 hour period.

"Heroin has a rapid onset and a rapid drop. The client would always be in a state of flux."

Horn noted the grand jury also recommended home visits to all participants in the program.

"It isn't really feasible," he said. "We have a counseling staff of 12, and 450 patients. The travel time involved would leave no time for work."

He added that no studies show if the program would even be effective and that it would definitely violate federal confidentiality guidelines.

"We aren't allowed to tell anyone that someone is a patient without specific written approval. Home visits would broadcast the news."

The county operates two methadone clinics — one in Ontario at 738 Ontario Blvd., and one in San Bernardino at 1236 N. Waterman Ave.

Horn and members of his staff are available to speak to interested groups about the methadone program. For information, persons may call the clinic or the program office at 383-3334.

Court asking for volunteers for county grand jury

The Superior Court is asking citizens to submit their names as volunteers for annual duty on the San Bernardino County Grand Jury beginning July 1.

Grand jurors are called to conduct investigations and submit reports on county government operations, hear information on certain criminal investigations, and issue indictments.

Serving as a juror involves an average of three full working days per week. There is a compensation of $10 per day plus mileage. The grand jury sits in San Bernardino.

To be eligible for service, a person must be at least 18 years of age, a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state and of the County of San Bernardino for a period of one year prior to appointment.

Potential jury members are also required to possess sufficient knowledge of the English language and be in possession of their natural faculties, of ordinary intelligence, of sound judgment and of fair character.

Appointment is randomly done after a screening process by the judges of the Superior Court. Grand jurors may be selected from volunteers, randomly generated computer lists by supervisorial district, or through direct nomination of a Superior Court judge.

Citizens should contact the office of Donald K. Crowell, Superior Court executive officer and jury commissioner at 351 N. Arrowhead Ave., San Bernardino by Feb. 7, for further information about qualifications and service. The telephone number is 383-2861.

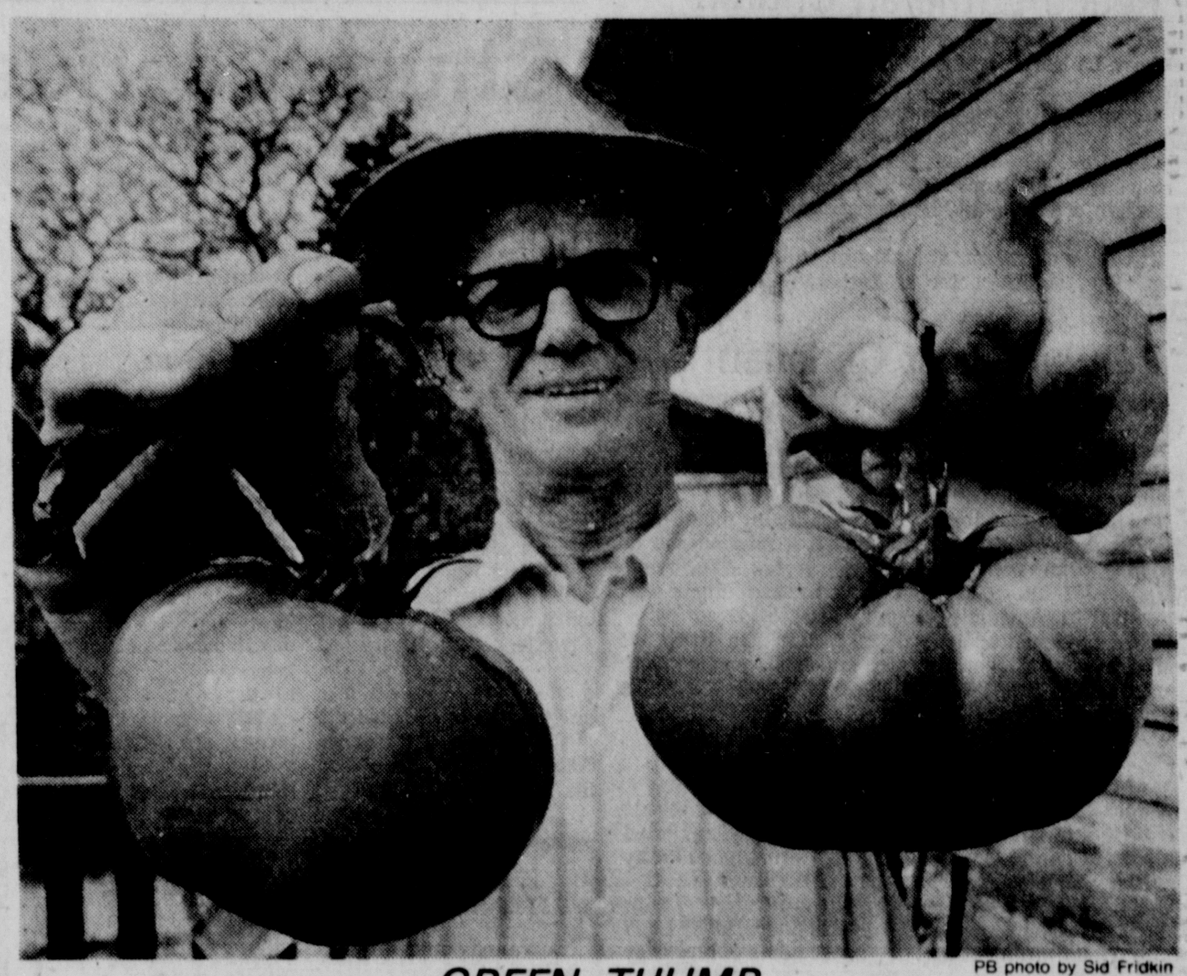

SMILE students to make trip

Over 50 people, including students, their parents, and others involved in Pomona's Project SMILE, will visit the Goez Art Gallery, tour murals in East Los Angeles, and travel to St. Elmo's Village today.

The trip was organized by the Emergency School Aid Act (ESAA) History and Culture of Minorities component, directed by project assistants Jo Cunningham and Lydia Vasquez.

In Project SMILE, students from local schools spend weekends visiting in the homes of others of different cultural or ethnic backgrounds. It is sometimes compared with foreign exchange programs, yet is conducted within the local community. Various other cultural exchange activities, such as today's field trip, are included in Project SMILE.

Those attending will meet at the Education Center at 9 a.m., where they will be transported by bus to the Goez Gallery, which features Mexican and Chicano art. They will then be given a tour of the East Los Angeles murals and a visit to El Mercado, a Mexican-type shopping center where they will be able to eat the lunches brought with them or purchase food items.

S.B. county offers measles immunization

The San Bernardino County Health Department will conduct two special measles immunization clinics on Wednesday.

Concerned that the measles epidemic reported in Los Angeles County will spread into the West End, the county health department will offer free measles shots for children 15 months old and older.

The Chino Health Office, 13260 Central Ave., Chino, will provide immunizations from 9 a.m. to noon.

The West End Health Center, 1020 W. Sixth St., Ontario, will operate a clinic in the auditorium at the west end of the building from 2 to 7 p.m.

Children who were immunized before Jan. 1, 1969, should again be immunized as cases of measles have been reported in some children immunized before that date.

Gomez campaign rummage sale

The Committee to Elect Paul Gomez to the board of trustees of the Chaffey Joint Union High School District, Ontario, will hold a rummage sale today at Aztlan Community Services, 828 E. Holt Blvd.

Doors will open at 9 a.m.

Tax story erred in IRA account

The "You and Your Income Taxes" article in Wednesday's Progress Bulletin erred in one statement of interest to self-employed persons, say Internal Revenue Service officials.

The Associated Press reported in the story that self-employed persons can't set up their own Individual Retirement Account. However, an IRS spokesman in the local area office said this statement was incorrect.

Two sections of the federal income tax code make it clear that self-employed persons can have an Individual Retirement Account, the spokesman said.

Ontario trash pickup change starts Monday

The refuse collection days for residents of Ontario will change Monday.

Dennis Wilkins, assistant city manager of public services, said in a newsletter that "We have tried to minimize the number of citizens affected.

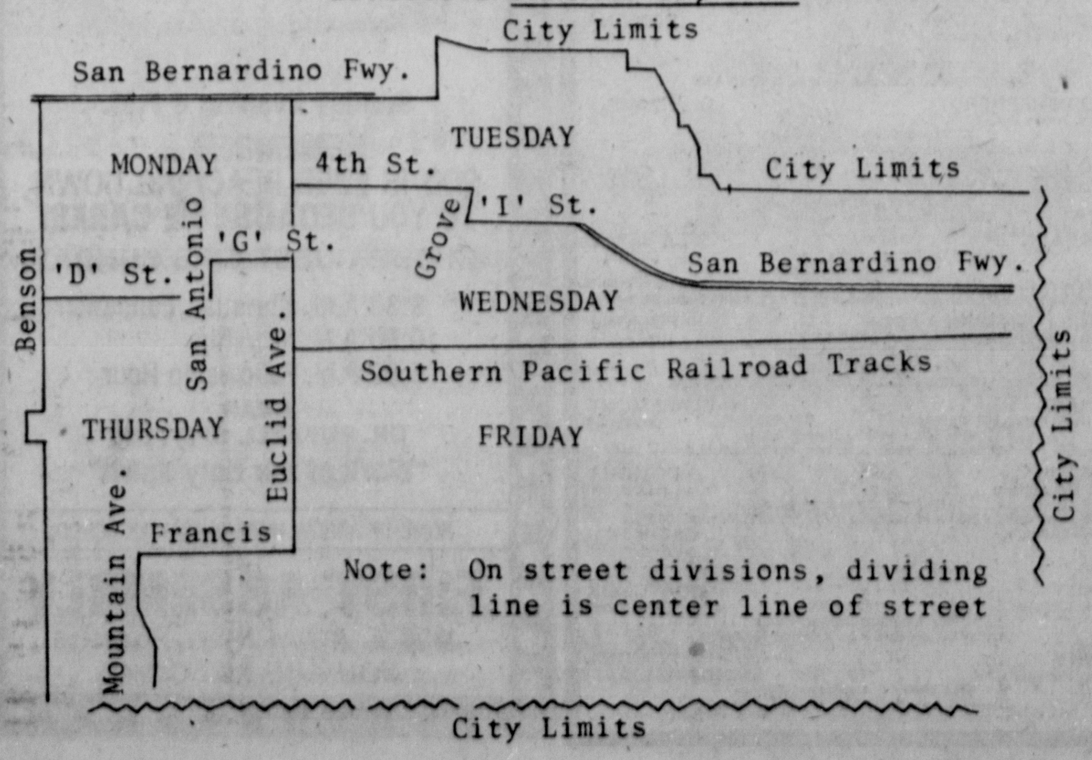

"We will introduce a new citywide refuse collection system designed to hold down the high cost of refuse collection while still providing the same level of service to you, the citizens," the newsletter continued.

"The collection system will continue to be once a week, curbside collection. The only change affecting citizens directly is a change for some in their day of collection."

Residents are asked to have their refuse put out by 7 a.m. in order to minimize difficulties in the new system. Wilkins also asked that "to help save our resources by separating your newspapers and placing them in bags or tied bundles next to your regular trash. They will be collected separately for recycling."

The new pickup schedule is shown in the map below:

Valley churches

Christ Lutheran Church

John Pusztai of Chino and Dr. A. L. Plueger, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Chino, this week attended a conference on developing a "Year of Evangelical Outreach" held in Lakewood.

Interested Lutheran churches throughout Southern California sent one pastoral and one laity representative to the conclave to share ideas and plan individual and cooperative endeavors for evangelism in 1977.

Refreshments will be served following 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. services Sunday at Christ Lutheran Church. Guitarist Terry Holden will play and sing at both services. He is a member of the church and lives in Cucamonga.

The junior choir will rehearse at 9:30 a.m. The Sunday parish school will meet at the same time for Bible study and crafts. The Adult Bible Forum, led by the pastor, will survey the First Book of Chronicles.

Claremont United Methodist

Michael D. Parker, director of youth and educational ministries at the Claremont United Methodist Church, will conduct another in the adult studies programs Sunday at 10:10 a.m.

"Let's Talk About Our Church — What Should We Do About Evangelism?" is his topic. The program will be held in the church's Round Building.

Conducted by Donald Brinegar, director of music, the Sanctuary Choir will sing at the 9:15 a.m. service. The Youth Choir will sing at the 11:05 a.m. service.

A service of contemporary worship will be held in the Round Building at 8:45 a.m. with Lois C. Seifert leading a discussion on "Speaking Theologically About Life."

Peace Lutheran Church

A youth-led service with emphasis on Lutheran High School, La Verne, will be held Sunday at 9 a.m. at Peace Lutheran Church, Pomona.

Guitars will accompany the singing. A chancel drama by the youth will be presented in addition to the sermon by the Rev. Ed Krueger, entitled "One Tiny Flaw."

Sunday also launches "Evangelism In-Reach," a program of caring and helping members and friends of the church.

The Bible class hour at 10:30 a.m. will be led by Vernon Ermeling, an instructor at Lutheran High School, La Verne.

Pomona First Christian

Pomona First Christian Church will be celebrating Laity Sunday on Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. service. This is a tradition in the First Christian Church for lay members to have a part in leadership of worship, and in the entire planning of the program of the congregation.

The observance extends an opportunity for members to express their concerns about Christian mission and individual witnessing. The theme will be: "I Have a Neighbor." It emphasizes Christian responsibility of each individual to community, country and world.

Those participating as lay speakers are Mrs. Ida Davis and Mr. Nobie Glover. Worship leaders from the youth department will be Beth Reisinger, Doug DeVitt, Mike Godfrey and Mike Sly.

Chino United Methodist

A workshop on "How to Share Your Faith" will precede the 10:45 a.m. worship service Sunday at Chino United Methodist Church. It will start at 9:25 a.m. and be led by Dr. Barry Woodbridge.

The Dorcas Fellowship Group will meet at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Richard Ludden. The Edna Smith Group will meet that day at the home of Mrs. Ray Case.

New Hope Church of God

Bishop E. E. Cleveland of Los Angeles will dedicate the New Hope Church of God In Christ, 1009 W. Second St., Pomona, Sunday at 3 p.m. Elder J. W. Thornton is the pastor.

LOCAL CONCERT — The Bel Canto Choir of Azusa Pacific College will present a musical program Sunday at 7 p.m. at the Faith Missionary Church, Pomona. The choir has toured the U. S. and its program ranges from classical to contemporary sacred music. The choir is directed by Al Clifft, instructor of music.

Youth Sunday at drive-in Youth Sunday will be observed Sunday at both the 8:30 and 10 a.m. worship services at the Valley Community Drive-In Church, San Dimas.

Associate Pastor Wayne Hoglin will be assisted in conducting the services by the Hi-Teens, the high school organization of the San Dimas church. A select group of young people has been planning the service. The theme is "Worship." It will try to answer some questions about worship, such as "what is worship?" and "who is the object of worship?"

A recently formed youth choir will also participate in the services.

Vincent Bennett will continue his study on the book of Philippians during the vesper service beginning at 6 p.m. He is a former professor of Bible at Azusa Pacific College.

Church series underlines topic: television violence

"Television Violence" is the topic of the "Church in Mission" series to be held at the La Verne Church of the Brethren on four Sunday evenings.

The first session will be held Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The television program, "Six Million Dollar Man," will be viewed and discussed. Viewers will fill out a "Violence inventory" while watching the show.

Stewart Hoover, consultant for Media Education and advocacy for the Church of the Brethren, will speak on Sunday, Feb. 6 at 7 p.m. He will use several films, including "Television, the Anonymous Teacher," in his presentation. He will discuss television awareness training, an educational project supported by the Church of the Brethren.

On Feb. 13th at 7 p.m. Nelson Ford, program director at Landmark Medical Center in Pomona, will speak on "Feelings in the fields of mental health and corrections." Ford also teaches at La Verne College.

The final session on Feb. 27 at 7 p.m. will feature Jay Rodriquez, manager of press/publicity and community relations for KNBC, channel 4. He also is in charge of the station's "Affirmation Action Plan." His topic will be "How to Talk Back to Your Television Set."

The Missions and Service Commission of the church is the sponsoring group for this series. All meetings will be held in the church library.

Gospel rock group at school assembly

By SUSAN BERGMANN
Pomona Catholic

Students at Pomona Catholic High School had a very different assembly Wednesday.

The Associated Student Body arranged for the gospel rock group "Parousia" to present a concert at school. The concert was entitled "Take a Long, Loving Look."

Some of the students and faculty had heard the group last year in Anaheim.

The group started off with "Set My Spirit Free." Robert and Barbara Lloyd, leaders of the group, gave an introduction, telling about their album "Sedona."

These young people are ardent Christians. They testify with words and song about their faith in God.

The word Parousia means Second Coming. Robert told the students he had had a dream which showed thousands of young people singing and praising the Lord and the word Parousia was written across the sky.

They sang such numbers as "God is My Friend," "Love is More," "Rich Man, Poor Man."

Between songs, members of the group introduced themselves and told of their religious experiences and convictions.

The band consisted of two electric guitar players, a drummer and three singers with small instruments like tambourines and cymbals, and one member who played both piano and electronic organ.

The students said the music and the testimonials combined to make a memorable and meaningful experience.

The Senior High School youth group will lead the 10 a.m. worship service Sunday at the Claremont Presbyterian Church.

Members of the cast are Elizabeth Calvin, Scott Relf, Ann Robertson, Dave Ramaley, Jackie Chapin, Lori Dixon, Randy Dixon, Beth Harber, Jim Harber, Blair Relf, Kathy Whitham and Kate Wood.

Following the service, the congregation will have a potluck dinner and annual meeting.

During the 7:30 p.m. service, Jack Hutchison will lead a discussion on "God, Man and Archie Bunker."

Bearbaiting

Bearbating, the bloody sport which matched specially trained dogs against a chained bear, was formally outlawed in England in 1835.

Church officers elected

At the recently held annual meeting of the San Dimas Community Church, Robert Gaston was elected to be the chairman of the church council.

Stanley Plummer was cited by the congregation for his excellent leadership as chairman during the past two years.

Other officers elected were Jerry Horstman, vice chairman; Alfred Batchelor, treasurer; and Plummer, church clerk. Michael Johnson, a first year student at Cal Poly, was elected to serve as a member-at-large.

Others elected to various committees were June Tudor, Michael Lindsay, Willis Bixby, Dorothy Pearson, Richard Beck, Jimmy Ducote, Ernest Hildebrandt, Michael Lindsay, and Jack Carruthers.

The church was recently commended by the Southern California Conference of the United Church of Christ for its outstanding accomplishments in its support of the World Mission Program.

Youth fellowship will lead service

The Senior High Youth Fellowship at San Dimas Community Church will lead the service of worship Sunday at 11 a.m.

St. Paul's observes stewardship month

January has been stewardship month at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Pomona. Worship services have been filled with special sermons, lay presentations, hymns, and congregational responses that showed proper stewardship.

Congregational potlucks were held on three consecutive Sunday evenings. After dinner, members of the stewardship board, coordinated by Mrs. Hester Dieter, gave a multi-media presentation of God's desire for persons to respond with gifts of love to Him. The morning and evening programs were called "Tell," showing that money, time and talents are needed to "tell His wonderful deeds."

The Rev. Thomas Hendry has proclaimed Sunday as "Tell" dedication Sunday. The 8 and 10:45 a.m. worship services will include stewardship and mission hymns, a sermon on "Desire the Higher Gifts," and Holy Communion.

Lutherans plan institute

Calvary Lutheran Church, Diamond Bar, and public relations director of the District Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod; Robert Swithers Jr., member of Peace Lutheran, Pomona and Dave Ramierez, of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Claremont, will represent Circuit 16 at a Church Growth Institute to be held at the Pasadena Hilton, Feb. 4 and 5.

Duffy explodes for 36

By MIKE BROSSART
PB Staff Writer

Bill Duffy, Damien High's preseason Prep All-America selection, scored a career high 36 points to lead his Spartans to a 65-57 comeback win over the visiting Montclair Cavaliers Friday night.

Duffy, scoring virtually at will in the second half, led the league-leading Spartans back from a 33-24 halftime deficit against the hot-shooting Cavaliers.

And it was two free throws by Duffy with 2:45 left in the game that gave Damien the lead for good at 56-55 — the Spartans' first lead since a 20-18 advantage over 20 minutes earlier.

After a turnover by each team and two missed shots by the Cavaliers, forward Simon Bleeker put the Spartans three points ahead with a basket with 58 seconds to go. After another Montclair miss and a rebound by Duffy, Bleeker was fouled by Bruce LaVallee — who had to exit with 18 points and 13 rebounds — and made both shots to put the game away at 60-55 with 30 seconds left.

Duffy hit three free throws and Montclair's Darrin Pierce scored a field goal before Duffy ended the game with a reverse slam dunk at the buzzer.

"They had me worried — Montclair played a fine game," said Damien coach Bill Roberts. "LaVallee is so good . . . .

"I was especially worried when Bill (Duffy) got his fourth foul so early." It came with seconds left in the third quarter.

Duffy scored "only" 11 points in the first half and — with 2:18 remaining before intermission — Roberts pulled him out of the game.

But when the second half began with the Spartans down by nine, Duffy began to hit. He made seven of nine field goal attempts in the third quarter to pull Damien within three points, 41-38, with one period to play.

Duffy went on to score 11 points in the fourth quarter for a total of 23 in the second half. He hit 14 of 21 (67 per cent) for the game and made eight of 12 free throws.

Teammate Dan Marconi also played a big part in the fourth quarter. He hit three important buckets from the top of the key to finish with 10 points in the game.

Darrin Pierce scored 14 points and Todd McGehee 11 for Montclair, but it was LaVallee who stood out for the Cavaliers.

The 6-foot-6 senior center was shut out in the first quarter, but scored six points in each of the next three periods.

He looked unstoppable at times. To open fourth-quarter scoring, he took a pass on the sideline at halfcourt and drove all the way to a dunk shot.

His 13 rebounds led Montclair to a 35-24 advantage on the boards.

The second quarter was when Montclair looked most as though it would hand Damien (8-0 in San Antonio League play, 11-6 overall) its first league loss.

The Cavs outrebounded their hosts, 13-4, in that period and outscored them, 19-8.

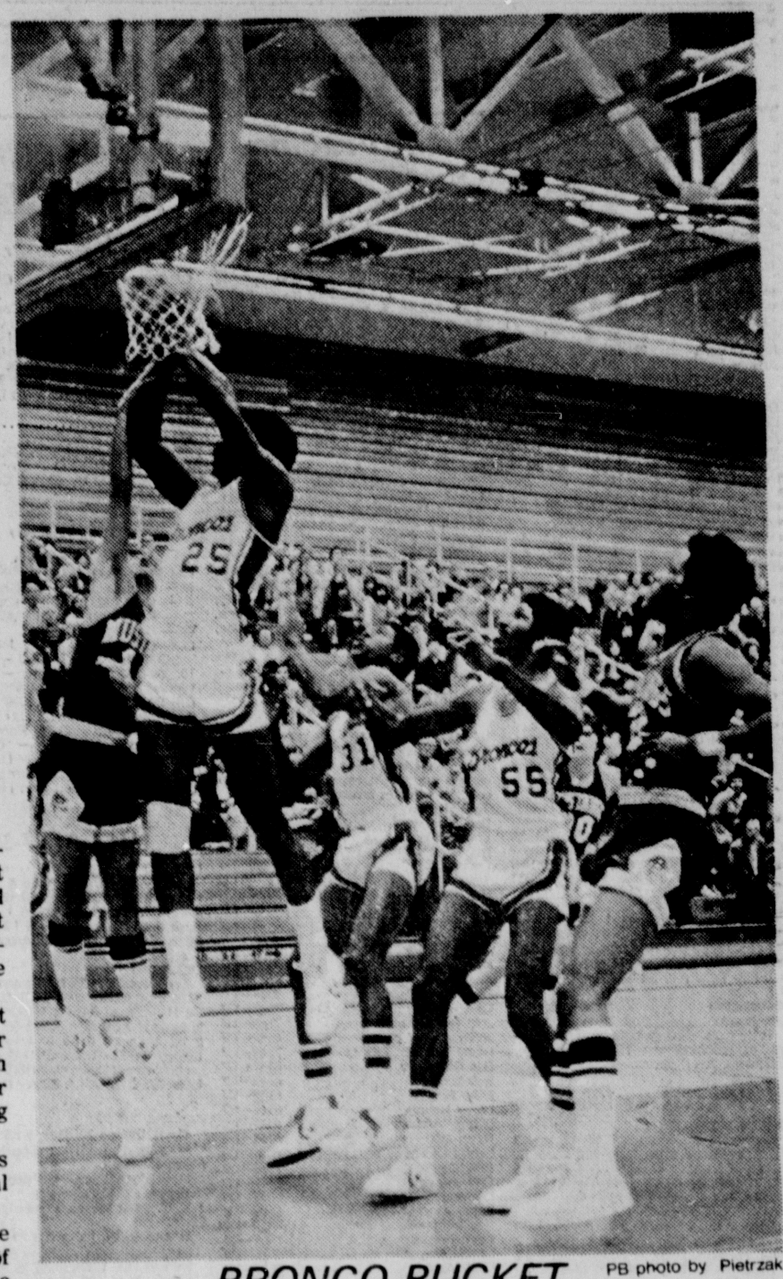

Damien made only 10 of 26 field goals in the first half but came back with 17 of 27 in the second for a 50.9 per cent mark. By contrast, Montclair hit 13 of 23 in the first half and only 12 of 28 in the second for 49.2 per cent.

Braves edge Romans

By DAN JOHNS
PB Correspondent

With 46 seconds left to go in regulation time, and Royal Oak out in front of Alta Loma 54-52, Brave forward Kevin Comstock hit on an eight-foot bank shot to send a hard-fought battle into overtime Friday night at the Romans' gym.

Both teams were allowed a short break before returning to the floor with just three minutes to work with in overtime. Both clubs had lost their starting centers and a starting forward on fouls.

But in the end it was the Braves who prevailed over a stubborn Royal Oak squad, 60-56.

Judging from the difference in the two teams' records one would of thought that the game would have been a runaway. Going into Friday night's game Alta Loma was 7-0 in league, 17-3 overall and had been ranked fifth in the latest CIF 2-A poll. Royal Oak meanwhile was 2-5 in league, 6-11 over all and had just come off a horrible performance against Bonita. Nevertheless, Royal Oak shocked the visitors by throwing a very effective scoring attack at the Braves and led at the half 31-26.

This was mostly due to the hot shooting of the Romans' Kevin Miller and Bill Cavanaugh who between them had 45 of Royal Oak's eventual 56 points. But in the second half the Braves showed that they had a few hot shots of their own. Alta Loma guard John Conger hit on four out of seven in the third period to help Alta Loma outscore the hosts in that stanza 20-11.

That set the stage for the overtime, and Alta Loma's 25th straight win in Hacienda league competition. The games leading scorer was Miller who had 25 points on the night. Alta Lomas leading scorer was center Rich Davis who had 18.

With the score tied at 38-38, Ganesha rolled off 16 points while Pomona only registered two on the scoreboard to take a 12-point lead over the Red Devils. The Giants' scoring spurt broke Pomona's back as the two schools traded baskets over the last 11 minutes of the contest.

"I thought we played harder tonight than we have been doing," noted Ganesha's Garey Fulkerson. "We didn't shoot very well tonight and I thought we turned the ball over to many times.

"I thought Pomona did a real good job against us tonight. I was impressed with Pomona as they came out and fought us for the ball. They just kept coming at us."

Geoge Hawthorne (26 points) and James Verdon (20 points) paced a Ganesha attack which shot 42 percent in the contest hitting 37 of 87 shot attempts. Hawthorne despite getting into foul trouble grabbed 17 rebounds and blocked four shots.

It was a rugged contest from the opening tip as both teams scrambled over the floor madly for the loose balls cause by errant passes. The Pomona players were evidently keyed up in playing one of its cross town rivals. The contest at times bordered on a helter-skelter type of play with faced paced tempo up and down the court. There was a total of 48 turnovers in the contest.

Pomona lost the contest on the boards as Ganesha outrebounded the Red Devils, 50-38. The advantage in the rebound column gave Ganesha 18 more shot attempts than Pomona.

Curtis Donaldson commented," I thought we had too many turnovers (30) tonight. If we could have made a few of the lay ups that we missed or second efforts we would have stayed in the game.

Lakers discover "Pearl"

By DON BRADLEY
PB Staff Writer

INGLEWOOD — There's a new "Earl the Pearl" in the NBA.

This one belongs to the Lakers.

Earl Tatum scored 19 of his 23 points in the fourth quarter to spark a Laker comeback that blew the visiting Philadelphia 76ers nearly off the court and certainly out of the game Friday night at the Forum before 17,505 roaring fans.

Tatum, a star forward at Marquette, was paired with Bo Lamar in the Los Angeles backcourt. Their quickness helped the Lakers outscore the 76ers, 40-20, to win going away, 117-104.

"We used almost everybody except Marv Roberts in the first half," said coach Jerry West. "We were trying to find someone who could handle the ball.

"Finally we decided to play the quicker people."

There are few people in the NBA quicker than Tatum.

"They were sagging in on Kareem (Abdul Jabbar)," explained Tatum softly. "So I just went one on one."

Jabbar was the only starter that played in the fourth quarter. When he came in, with 8:21 left in the game, Tatum had already connected on four straight shots to pull the Angelenos from a seven-point deficit, 87-74, to within a point, 88-87.

It took 16 seconds for Jabbar to put the Lakers ahead, 89-88 as the crowd went into a frenzy. The 76ers managed to tie it, 89-89, on Caldwell Jones' free throw. But it was Philadelphia's last gasp.

Tatum scored two more baskets, than capped it by blocking Lloyd Free's shot, recovering the ball, dribbling down the floor and scoring again to make it 95-89.

"Earl is really something," enthused West in a mild understatement. "I can't tell you how proud I am of all these guys.

"They never give up. Every night we seem to find somebody. It's a credit to these guys (the reserves). They go out and play as hard as they can and never complain when they're taken out. I've been in this game 14 years and I don't think I've ever seen a bench with a better attitude."

The victory was the 18th straight at home for the Lakers and broke the club record set by the 1971-72 championship team during the famous 33-game win streak.

Broncs sweep two from SLO

By BILL LANGLEY
PB Sports Editor

Co-captain Dennis Wiesse came off the bench to sink a free throw to give Cal Poly Pomona a wild 74-73 victory over archrival Cal Poly San Luis Obispo with nine seconds left in the second overtime Friday night.

The battle between the two Cal Polys was a typical nailbiter with Wiesse's free throw providing the victory in the hard-fought emotion-packed contest.

Wiesse got his opportunity when guard Tom Ispas was knocked to the floor by SLO's Neil Wehner as he was going up for a layup.

Ispas suffered a leg cramp and Pomona said he couldn't shoot the free throws. SLO claimed it was all a fake and it soon developed into an ugly situation with players and coaches yelling at each other.

When the calm settled, the officials let Wiesse shoot for Ispas. The co-captain sank the first charity toss to break the 73-73 tie but missed the second.

SLO still had time but the Mustangs threw the ball out of bounds and the Broncos celebrated.

The opener of the doubleheader wasn't nearly as close as the Cal Poly Pomona women's team (13-2 for the year) breezed past the SLO women, 82-43.

Pomona forward Henry Randolph was probably the biggest hero for the Broncos.

With the score tied and the clock running out, SLO's Bob Nicholson went up for a short jump shot. But Randolph leaped up to block it and the ball went to Ispas, who drove the length of the court to set up the climatic foul.

The wild victory gives Pomona and SLO identical 2-1 records in CCAA play. The Broncos return to Kellogg Gym tonight to host defending champion Cal State Bakersfield (0-3) while SLO visits first-place Cal State Northridge (3-0).

Pomona received some good fortune in finally earning the victory.

On a controversial call, SLO's Andre Keys had an opportunity to win the game for the Mustangs after time ran out in regulation play.

Pomona was leading, 58-57, but Keys was fouled trying to put in a tip-in as the buzzer sounded.

After much discussion, Keys was allowed to go to the foul line with the game riding on his marksmanship. He missed the first shot but made the second to force the first overtime.

Broderick Hunter's basket with 18 seconds left gave Pomona a 66-66 tie after the initial overtime.

Forward Jack Gamulin and guard Charles Johnson led the Broncs with 22 and 21 points respectively. Ispas added 13 assists as he fed his teammates with crisp passes all night.

"I'm just glad to get out of this madness with a win," said Pomona coach Don Hogan.

The Pomona women spurted to a 42-17 halftime lead over the Mustangs and coasted the rest of the way as 10 players made the scoring column. Jill Spencer led the way with 15 points as she sank all seven field goals.

Lions' owner here to ink Chuck Knox?

DETROIT (AP) — Owner William Clay Ford of the Detroit Lions reportedly flew to Los Angeles Friday to dangle a record $2.5 million contract in front of Chuck Knox, the man he wants to coach his National Football League team.

The Detroit Free Press said in Saturday's editions that Ford and Lions General Manager Russ Thomas headed West for an all-out effort to lure Knox away from his job as coach of the Los Angeles Rams.

Other Lions officials said it was no secret Ford has talked with Knox several times in recent days.

"I don't know if Mr. Ford or Russ are in California," said one Lions official. "Mr. Ford keeps those things pretty much to himself."

The Free Press said Ford is prepared to offer Knox the most lucrative coaching contract in the history of the National Football League.

The newspaper said it would not be a straight cash deal of $500,000 a year for five years. Instead, some of it would be in fringe benefits such as deferred payment, an insurance policy and a home in the Detroit area. The deal would not include any Lions stock.

The Free Press said Ford and Thomas expect to do some head-to-head bargaining with owner Carroll Rosenbloom of the Rams. Rosenbloom has indicated he expects to be reimbursed if Knox leaves the Rams.

Stories earlier this week indicated Rosenbloom was interested in veterans Greg Landry, Charlie Sanders or Lem Barney. But the Free Press reported that Rosenbloom prefers such younger talent on the Lions as fullback Lawrence Gaines, tight end David Hill and defensive back James Hunter.

FULLERTON — Dale Bunn and Obie Graves, JC All-American performers for Citrus College this past season, have signed to attend Cal State Fullerton and play football next season, CSF head coach Jim Colletto has announced.

"We're delighted to have signed two highly skilled offensive football players who will add great explosiveness to our Veer offense next fall," Colletto said.

"Graves is an explosive runner who runs extremely well inside. He should be a threat every time he puts his hands on the football.

"Bunn is the type of runner you look for in the Veer offense, as he will make the quarterback position a definite running threat on each snap, and can throw equally well from a drop back, or on the run."

Bunn, a 6-0, 180-pound quarterback, guided Citrus to a 10-1 record in 1976. He rushed for 544 yards and passed for 957.

Graves, a 5-9, 170-pounder, was the Mission Conference's Most Valuable Player last season after gaining 1,288 yards rushing and scoring 18 touchdowns.

Bunn and Graves both prepped at Monrovia High.

Bruins breeze

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Forward Marques Johnson's 26 points and 15 rebounds led UCLA to an easy 77-59 victory over Southern California in a Pacific-8 Conference basketball game Friday night.

Johnson, who was 12 of 18 from the floor, thrilled the crowd of 12,397 in UCLA's Pauley Pavilion with his acrobatic antics — including five slam dunks — as the Bruins improved their conference record to 4-1 and overall mark to 15-2.

Complementing Johnson were forward David Greenwood with 17 points, and guards Roy Hamilton and Jim Spillane with 14 and 11 points.

Leading the way for USC, which has now lost 20 Pac-8 games in a row over two seasons, was forward Greg White with 17 points. Guard Marv Safford added 12 points for the Trojans.

USC is now 0-5 in conference play this season, and 4-13 overall.

UCLA, which held a 41-30 halftime lead, ran off four straight points to start the second half and USC was never able to cut the margin to less than 10.

The Bruins increased their edge to 19, 55-36, seven minutes into the second half, and went on to lead by as many as 21 points.

Prudhomme tops qualifying

Two-time World Champion Don "The Snake" Prudhomme of Granada Hills, Calif., debuting his all-new Plymouth Arrow funny car, stunned the drag racing world Friday as the 35-year-old veteran set low elapsed time for the Funny Car class in the second day of qualifications at the 17th Annual National Hot Rod Association Winternationals at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds in Pomona.

Prudhomme, who has captured the Winternationals in Funny Car Eliminator the past two years, had been experiencing difficulty with his new mount with a run of 7.47 seconds on Thursday in qualifying, as the funny car suffered severe tire shake at the mid-range point in his only attempt.

However, late Friday afternoon Prudhomme returned to the Pomona quarter-mile, and promptly took over the top qualifying position with a time of 6.14 seconds at a speed of 240.64 miles per hour. The speed marked only the fourth time in drag racing history that a full-bodied machine had exceeded 240 miles per hour.

Following Prudhomme in Funny Car qualifying was Raymond Beadle of Dallas, Tex., in the "Blue Max" Mustang with a time of 6.18 seconds at 232.56 miles per hour. Rounding out the top three entering today's final qualifying session is another Texan, Dale Emery also of Dallas, who recorded a 6.29 at 226.13 m.p.h.

In the Top Fuel dragster qualifications, "Big Daddy" Don Garlits of Seffner, Fla., continues to lead with a time of 5.93 seconds. Garlits made only one qualifying attempt on Friday to improve his Thursday clocking of 5.94.

Second in Top Fuel is Hank Johnson of Marysville, Wash., who turned in a fine 5.94 second time, followed by defending Winternationals champion Frank Bradley of Napa, Calif., at 5.98. Garlits, Johnson, and Bradley are the only drivers to reach the five-second bracket thus far.

In other qualifying, Don Nicholson of Orange, Calif., leads Pro Stock with an 8.70 reading while Bill Williams of Torrance, Calif., heads the list in Pro Comp Eliminator with a 6.67 clocking.

The only incident during Friday's qualifying was a Pro Stock crash with Shelby Jester of Abilene, Tex., flipping his 1977 Chevy Monza end-over-end at better than 140 miles per hour. Jester, a 33-year-old veteran who finished 10th in the World Standings last year, was uninjured in the mishap, but the car was destroyed.

Qualifying for the $304,750 Winternationals continues through today with final eliminations beginning at 11 a.m. on Sunday at the Fairgrounds.

Stargell gets Picolo Award

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Wilver Stargell of the Pittsburgh Pirates was presented the Brian Picolo-YMCA Award for Humanitarian Service in ceremonies Thursday at the Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation Museum.

Stargell, the outfielder and first baseman of the Pirates, was named for his work on behalf of the Black Athletes Foundation, which he helped found, and that group's fund-raising efforts for sickle cell anemia. He is also involved in many other community and national activities.

Previous winners of the award were Jim Lefebvre and Wes Parker in 1972; Floyd Little in 1973, Milt Sunde in 1974 and Joyn Havlicek, 1975.

Garey nips Chino

By MARK GRIP
PB Correspondent

Viking forward Craig Snyder scored only three points in Garey High's San Antonio League victory over host Chino Friday night.

Two of his three points came in the waning seconds of the game and provided Garey with a 53-51 corral-burner in Chino.

Viking James Lofton missed a 15-footer and Snyder leaped above everybody to tip the ball in with two seconds showing on the clock.

Chino tried a long pass down court, but Snyder swatted the ball out of bounds with still one second remaining. The Cowboys inbounded the ball to Roger Hairston, but he was unable to get a shot off before the buzzer.

The last second win keeps the Vikes in the SAL playoff picture by boosting their league record to 6-2. Garey is all alone in third place behind Damien(8-0) and Ganesha(7-1).

The Vikings(12-6 overall) are almost assured a CIF playoff berth since fourth place Upland is only 4-4 in the San Antonio.

Chino was in playoff striking distance, but the loss drops it to 3-5 in league and 7-12 overall. The Cowboys have lost to Garey by a total of four points. In their meeting earlier this Garey squeezed out a two-point victory in two overtimes.

Viking coach Mike Wells can't figure out his team. "I don't understand them, they must have had something else on their minds.

"There's something about their attitude. We've been playing well as a unit the last few games until tonight. We've got to keep our unit going together."

Chino held the Vikings to just two points until Garey scored two with 48 seconds left in the period. Cowboy center Gene Campbell scored 12 points in leading his fired up team to a 17-4 lead after the first eight minutes.

Chino quickly jumped to a 15-point margin, but the Vikings countered with 10 straight points to get back in the game and trailed 25-20 at intermission. Ken Ottrix tallied eight points for Garey in the second quarter.

Garey made up the difference and even took a one-point lead three times and finished the third on top by one 39-38. Ottrix again led the charge with eight points.

Chino shot out to a seven-point lead with eight consecutive points at 5:52 of the last quarter. Garey closed the gap to tie at 49 apiece with two minutes to play.

Chino took a two-point lead with a minute left and Garey tied on James Lofton's basket with 18 seconds to play. The Cowboys then turned the ball over to set up Synder's last second heroics.

Ottrix and Cowboy Roger Hairston took scoring honors with 18 points each followed by Lofton with 16. Barry Higgins added 15 and Campbell 14 for the Cowboys.

Upland wins

BY TONY ROBBINS
PB Correspondent

The Upland High Highlanders edged Claremont High 62-60 Friday night in an incredibly close battle played at Upland.

John Scheerer won the game for the Highlanders. Faced with a tie score and a one-and-one situation, Scheerer scored both free throws with four seconds left on the clock to give Upland the lead and the game.

"This has to be one of the most exciting games I've ever seen in all my years as a coach. I'm just glad we were the ones on top in the end," exclaimed Upland coach Paul Troutwein. "They needed the win, but we're glad to take it."

Claremont may have lost the game, but as Wolfpack coach Jack Smith explained, they had nothing to be ashamed of. In fact they came within an inch of winning the game as Claremont guard Ray Kwiatek shot a half court prayer that came too close for Highlander comfort, rolling off the rim at the buzzer.

Neither team played an exceptional first half. Upland only held a slight edge on the Wolfpack, although the Highlanders did jump out to a quick 8-0 first period lead.

But as they were to do throughout the game, Claremont came right back rallying to pull within two at the end of the period. In the second period both squads came out firing, as Claremont center Derek Britton and Highlander Brian Patterson began to do battle. This time the 'Pack took advantage of Upland turnovers to take a three point lead.

The Highlanders then took their turn at playing catchup ball as they pulled within one with ten seconds on the clock. Claremont fouled Kent Byer with three seconds to play and Byer made both free throws to give the Highlanders a 25-24 halftime lead.

The third quarter varied little from the first two. It began as a seesaw battle between the squads with each team trading baskets. Finally, Upland's Steve Handson and Steve Davenport began to dominate the period scoring five consecutive field goals, thus giving the Highlanders a seven point lead.

The Claremont center made the first part of his one and one situation, but he missed the second and that was it for Claremont.

Damien booters maintain lead

Damien High maintained its lead in the San Antonio League soccer standings Friday with a easy 6-2 win over visiting Montclair.

In other SAL action, Chino took over sole possession of second place with a 3-1 victory over Garey, Claremont edged Upland 1-0 and Ganesha blanked Pomona 2-0.

In a Hacienda League upset, Bonita edged first-place Gladstone 1-0 in overtime. In another H.L. tilt played Friday, Ontario bested Walnut 2-0.

Damien received two goals from Ricky Garcia, a recent addition from the J.V. team, to pace the win over Montclair. Mark Hunter, Brian Sullivan, Tom Lopez and Brian Potter also scored for the Spartans. Rick Adams continued his standout play for Montclair with a goal.

Claremont's Billy Pitts booted home a score late in the second half to give the Wolfpack their third straight 1-0 win. Steve Tipping sparkled in the nets for the 'Pack.

Manny Ramirez kicked in two scores and Joaquin Zendejas one as Chino beat Garey under the lights at Chino High.

Richard Perez, in only his second game in the nets for the Cowboys, turned in a top-notch effort.

Bob Edelbrock accounted for the lone Bonita score and Mark Munsford posted the shutout in the nets as the Bearcat booters surprised Gladstone in a Hacienda League match. Gladstone is now 4-1-1 in league and 10-6-1 overall.

In a junior varsity game of note Friday, the Claremont J.V. squad blanked Upland 5-0 behind a four-goal effort by Randy Taylor. The 'Pack J.V. squad is now 8-0 in SAL matches and has outscored the opposition 49-0.

Kicking around

With Adrian Mercado & Willy Keo

SOCCER IS A TEAM GAME and one local example of it is the successful season Damien High is having without the services of its most heralded star, Rick Davis, an All-American high schooler, and also all-tourney pick at the World Cup Jr. prelims in Puerto Rico recently . . . along with St. Louis U's goalie Dave Brcic . . . the only two Americans so honored.

Davis was scouted by Dave Chaplik, Santa Clara's chief worrier, who had previously picked up other Damien players for the college circuit.

Strangely, the fortunes of Damien High have risen higher since the outstanding stars have departed, throwing some credence on the idea soccer teams function better with several pretty good players than with a star or two. Currently, the latest coaches' ranking finds Damien sixth among almost a gross of schools under CIF tutelage.

An insight shows three Damien regulars were teammates with championship AYSO teams . . . Pat Fahey and the Fox brothers, Mike and Pete, helping the Pomona Rangers to a title in the 13-14 yr. bracket and playing all star with several players now playing against them on other SAL teams.

The earliest area into youth soccer out this way was Claremont, who for nearly a decade dominated youth and CIF soccer, but Damien (with its private school advantage enabling it to pick outside a limited geographic area) has put its nose to the soccer grindstone and come up with a strong team for the 1977 season. Claremont hangs on in 10th spot in CIF with improving Chino and Garey notching 11th and 18th respectively. Garey's playmaker is Dioscoro Macias, who teamed with the Foxes and Fahey in AYSO allstar play. Little by little the early training is showing.

In 3A CIF ratings, Serian Stepanian's strong Chaffey team ranks number one and is aiming for a playoff spot to try to better their surprising fourth place CIF finish last year.

ADRIAN MERCADO is dividing the week between Atlanta and Chicago snowstorms . . . providing a logical time to let you know Adrian has been appointed National Director of Coaching for AYSO, the American Youth Soccer Organization.

A former pro coach of the famous Brooklyn Hispano club, Mercado will now formulate the training plans for young boys and girls in 20 states, encompassing more than 100,000 players and about 6,500 coaches whose job it will be to bring the lessons right down to the field they play on. Live clinics and professional films will figure heavily in the effort . . . and that most important factor . . . the coach/player relationship.

BACK IN 1956 the selection of the European Footballer of the Year was initiated by the Parisian magazine FRANCE FOOTBALL. The first award went to the long-serving Stanley Matthews of Stoke City/Blackpool & England. Three players have won the honor twice . . . Alfredo DiStefano of Spain in '75 and '59 for his leadership of the fabulous Real Madrid club; Johann Cruyff of Ajax-/Barcelona and Holland in '71 and '73, and Franz Beckenbauer of Bayern Munich and West Germany in '72 and '74. The elegant defenseman of the West German World Cup and World Club champs has now made it for a third time.

To date, the award has gone to two Englishmen (Matthews and Bobby Charlton); one Frenchman (Raymond Kopa); three Spanish (DiStefano and Luis Suarez); Italians Sivori and Rivera; Russians Yashin and Blokhin; Masopust of Czechoslovakia; Denis Law of Scotland; Eusebio of Portugal; Florian Albert of Hungary; George Best of Northern Ireland; Cruyff of Holland twice; West Germans Gerd Muller and Gunter Netzer, and the thrice-named Beckenbauer. Only Europeans are eligible for the award and it is noticeable that some great players have never made the select honor, like Bobby Moore, Ferenc Puskas, Pirri and Gento of Spain, Uwe Seeler of West Germany, Sandro Mazzola of Italy, John Charles of Wales, Jimmy Greaves of England, Ondrus and Panenka and Viktor of Czechoslovakia and others who may come to your mind. All star selections will always be debatable, no doubt, depending on your personal view.

THE BIG SUPERDAD'S GAME will be the middle game on Sunday at MSAC football stadium when Diamond Bar's Groaners will tangle with Hacienda Heights' Grunters. Frits Rosenveldt's Cities United will start things rolling at 12 noon vs. San Bernardino's All-stars; the dads will follow, and the finale will be a semi-pro clash between Club Mexico and Independencia. Drop around for a Fun Sunday and don't forget the dads' game will be refereed by some mothers!

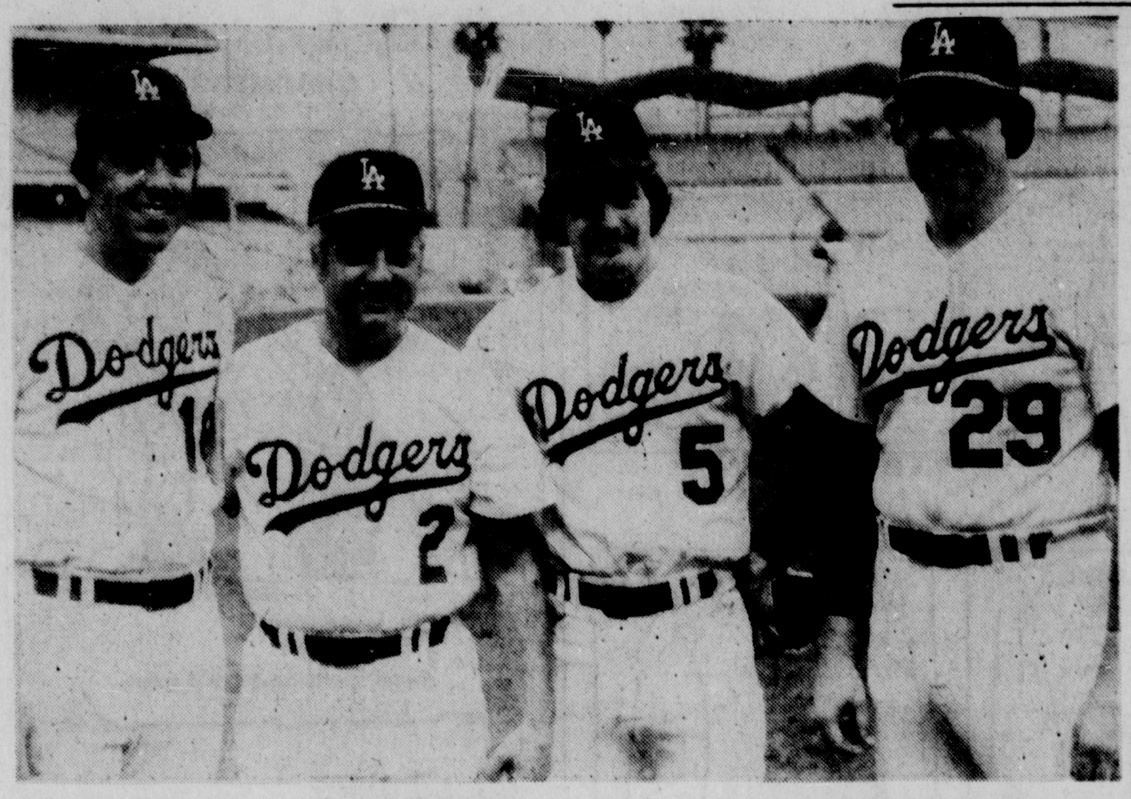

A MIDWEEK CALL REMINDED US of Glendora's recent happening when the Glendora Youth Soccer League invited a team of 12 and 13 year old Mexican boys from Valle de Bravo, Mexico up north for a "friendly". Everything was of amigo status except the score which the Latin dribblers ran up to eight whilst holding Glendora's finest 12 and 13 year olds to two goals . . . both scored by Pete Nyberg to hold up Glendoran honor.

Gary Breneman saw eight go past him but he also stopped dozens of shots to keep the game respectable. Bob Drummond and his assisting coaches Nash/Phillips/Urgeleit look upon the game as good experience for their kids to play a superior opponent and hope to have more of it. It was still a 2-2 ball game halfway thru the second half. Not bad for kids who just took to the game. The more experienced Mexican boys relaxed into a passing pattern and finished with six more goals.

IF YOU HAD YOUR NOSE POINTED TOWARD THE BOOB TUBE last Saturday afternoon you saw soccer star Kyle Rote, Jr. mow down the professional opposition on the annual Superstars show. Rote was the first American soccer player to receive publicity when he was leading scorer of the NASL in 1973 and won the Rookie of the Year award, too. Most of the publicity derived from the fact that he also won the Superstars decathlon-of-sorts twice in competition with pro athletes earning far more than he gets for his soccer endeavors.

The highest paid stars of basketball, football, and baseball do not fare too well in the competition which requires stamina, agility and versatility in addition to strength, power and size. Those who appear to pile up the most points are the track athletes, the skiers and in Rote's case, the soccer player..fields where all-round abilities are required rather than the specialty of the four-bagger, the dunk-shot or the plunging first-down. Even the ultra-quick Olympic boxing champs are incapable of excelling at this Ranger/Paratrooper type of challenge. The final is set for February 20 and soccerdom will be watching to see if Kyle can make it a hat-trick of Superstar caps. Whether he can cut it again or not . . . Rote has been American soccer's best foot forward in getting media attention for soccer . . . and one hey of a person he is, too.

JULIE VEE, former Aztec now playing with Lierse in Belgium, will be back in action for the San Jose Earthquakes, along with former Seattle striker John Rowlands whose great heading ability has made him a valuable centerback for the Quakes. Famous Benfica star Tony Simoes may not be able to come back from Portugal for '77 but up north they are intimating they may come up with the great Scottish star Billy Bremner to run the Quake midfield. Bremner's appearance in the NASL would only be second to Pele's move from Brazil.

Dodgers plan open workout

LOS ANGELES — The three newest members of the Los Angeles Dodgers — outfielder Rick Monday, catcher Johnny Oates and pitcher Mike Garman — are scheduled to appear at Dodger Stadium at the Dodgers' annual open-to-the-public workout on Sunday, Feb. 13.

The 1977 Dodgers, under the leadership of Tom Lasorda, will workout at 11:30 a.m. and play the USC Trojans at 1 p.m. in a five-inning exhibition game. Admission and parking are free of charge.

The Dodgers have been working out three times a week since mid-January. Lasorda has been assisted by Dodger coach Jim Gilliam, minor league pitching instructor Ron Perranoski and Dodger scout Gail Henley.

Monday, Oates and Garman are expected to be joined by Don Sutton, Steve Garvey, Ron Cey, Rick Auerbach, Dusty Baker, Reggie Smith, Al Downing, Lee Lacy, Burt Hooton, Dough Rau, Charlie Hough, Tommy John, Davey Lopes, Steve Yeager and Rick Rhoden.

Coach Rod Dedeaux will bring a fine crop of Trojans to Dodger Stadium. Dedeaux has seen a handful of Trojans dot major league rosters.

Among the Dedeaux grads are Tom Seaver of the New York Mets; Dave Kingman of the Mets; Jim Barr of the San Francisco Giants; Fred Lynn of the Boston Red Sox; Bill Lee of the Red Sox; Brent Storm of the San Diego Padres; Tom House of the Red Sox; Ron Fairly of the Oakland A's; Pete Redfern of the Minnesota Twins and Steve Busby of the Kansas City Royals.

JC cagers keep busy

By JIM McCONNELL
PB Staff Writer

The valley's three junior colleges will all be hosting basketball games tonight.

In a South Coast Conference matchup, Mt. San Antonio will entertain Orange Coast. In two tilts in the Mission Conference, Citrus will square off against Riverside City College and Chaffey will meet San Diego City College.

The MSAC contest starts at 7:30 p.m., the other two at 8 p.m.

MSAC takes a disappointing 0-4 conference mark into tonight's clash with Orange Coast (1-3). The Mounties could vault out of the basement with a victory.

Coach Gene Victor's crew has not gotten it together in SCC action after a successful 12-5 pre-league slate. The Mounties appear to have the talent, but haven't been able to overcome the loss of forward Angel Santiago, who quit the squad early in the year.

Victor is expected to start a lineup of Robert Vigil and Earner Mays at forwards, John Deck at center, and Dick Rockwood and Jimmy Love at guards vs. Orange Coast. Vigil continues to pace the MSAC scoring with close to 20 points per outing. Rockwood and Mays are also averaging in double figures.

Orange Coast is led by sophomore forward Phil Bolden, who is averaging 17.6 points per outing and seven rebounds per game. Guard Jon Holland (13.7) and forward Jeff Golden (10.3) are also scoring in double figures.

Citrus, 2-3 in Mission action, has one final chance to vault into title contention tonight vs. a tough Riverside City squad.

Chaffey can up its Mission mark tonight vs. winless SDCC. The game will also be a matchup between two of the conference's top scorers, SDCC's Mike Johnson (26.0) and Chaffey's Kevin Johnson (27.2).

Since most plants grow from seeds, you may have wondered how new seedless grape plants grow.

Actually, it is not necessary that grapes have seeds to reproduce with, for cultivated grapes are seldom grown from seeds today.

A common way of growing new grapevines is from cuttings, or pieces, of older vines.

To start a new vine, a piece about 12 inches long is cut from the old vine. The cutting has several buds that will develop into new leaves and branches.

The cutting is usually planted in a nursery where it develops roots. Later, the rooted vine is dug up and planted in the vineyard as a new grapevine.

At one time, seedless grapes had seeds like other grapes. Over many years, man has bred out the seeds by selecting only the grapes that had the fewest seeds to grow new vines, and planting their vines in turn, until finally a seedless grape resulted.

Q. "HOW DO SEEDLESS GRAPES GROW?"

CHRIS ERWIN

A. SEEDLESS GRAPES DON'T GROW FROM SEEDS. NEW VINES ARE USUALLY STARTED BY PLANTING CUTTINGS FROM OLDER VINES.

Retarded assn. awaits accreditation

By VONNE ROBERTSON
PB Staff Writer

The Ontario-Pomona Association for Retarded Citizens is starting a new year with new officers, confident that it will soon receive official word of its accreditation.

"The accreditation team was highly complimentary during the official visit to our facilities," outgoing board president George Underhill told the annual meeting and installation guests at the Arbor restaurant in Upland.

"While we have not officially been notified, we are confident that OPARC's programs met with approval."

The accreditation of the school and workshop, Diversified Industries, has been a goal of the association. It permits the continuation of programs meeting state criteria for education.

Underhill listed other accomplishments during the year as the remodeling of Diversified Industries, the remodeling of the exterior of the OPARC school in Montclair to provide a better environment for students and a parent education outreach program.

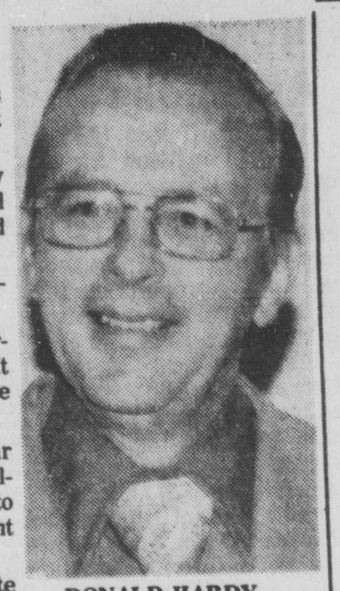

He also cited the introduction of an in-home respite program to allow parents of a developmentally disabled child some relief from responsibility for brief periods and the extension of membership programs involving parents of OPARC students.

Underhill also pointed to programs for the upgrading of staff personnel and their benefits, inservice training and the development of an affirmative action program.

Howard Snider, a past president of OPARC, served as master of ceremonies and Ontario Councilman Homer Briggs was the installing officer.

Serving as officers for 1977 are Donald Hardy, president; John McCallum, vice president; Naomi Brooker, secretary; Robert Kurtz, treasurer; and Underhill, past president.

Installed as new board members were Virginia Allen, John Calvin, Rodolfo Guzman, Marilyn Nisbett, Harry Sipple, Bill Vermilya, Donald Watte and Beverly Wechsler.

Furniture a 'rare' gift

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation recently received a collection of late 17th and 18th-century furniture and a supporting grant from Col. and Mrs. Miodrag Blagojevich of Drayden, Md.

The Blagojevich Collection, the subject of a lecture during the 1973 Williamsburg Antiques Forum, consists primarily of late 17th-century and William and Mary style furniture, much of it of American origin and extremely rare. The total gift is valued at more than $1.5 million doldars.

Before you put your foot down on the gas pedal think about this.

If everybody slowed down to 55 America would save eight and a half million gallons of gasoline a day. We'd save a lot of lives, too. 9400 fewer people died on the highways in 1975 than in 1973, when speed limits were over 55. And if you still think the 55 mph speed limit is something you can take or leave there's one more thing to consider:

SPEED LIMIT 55

It's not just a good idea. It's the law.

Retarded assn. awaits accreditation

By VONNE ROBERTSON
PB Staff Writer

The Ontario-Pomona Association for Retarded Citizens is starting a new year with new officers, confident that it will soon receive official word of its accreditation.

"The accreditation team was highly complimentary during the official visit to our facilities," outgoing board president George Underhill told the annual meeting and installation guests at the Arbor restaurant in Upland.

"While we have not officially been notified, we are confident that OPARC's programs met with approval."

The accreditation of the school and workshop, Diversified Industries, has been a goal of the association. It permits the continuation of programs meeting state criteria for education.

Underhill listed other accomplishments during the year as the remodeling of Diversified Industries, the remodeling of the exterior of the OPARC school in Montclair to provide a better environment for students and a parent education outreach program.

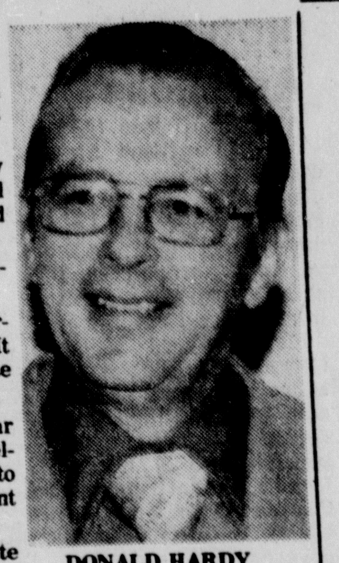

He also cited the introduction of an in-home respite program to allow parents of a developmentally disabled child some relief from responsibility for brief periods and the extension of membership programs involving parents of OPARC students.

Underhill also pointed to programs for the upgrading of staff personnel and their benefits, inservice training and the development of an affirmative action program.

Howard Snider, a past president of OPARC, served as master of ceremonies and Ontario Councilman Homer Briggs was the installing officer.

Serving as officers for 1977 are Donald Hardy, president; John McCallum, vice president; Naomi Brooker, secretary; Robert Kurtz, treasurer; and Underhill, past president.

Installed as new board members were Virginia Allen, John Calvin, Rodolfo Guzman, Marilyn Nisbett, Harry Sipple, Bill Vermilya, Donald Watte and Beverly Wechsler.

Furniture a 'rare' gift

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation recently received a collection of late 17th and 18th-century furniture and a supporting grant from Col. and Mrs. Miodrag Blagojevich of Drayden, Md.

The Blagojevich Collection, the subject of a lecture during the 1973 Williamsburg Antiques Forum, consists primarily of late 17th-century and William and Mary style furniture, much of it of American origin and extremely rare. The total gift is valued at more than $1.5 million doldars.

Before you put your foot down on the gas pedal think about this.

If everybody slowed down to 55 America would save eight and a half million gallons of gasoline a day. We'd save a lot of lives, too. 9400 fewer people died on the highways in 1975 than in 1973, when speed limits were over 55. And if you still think the 55 mph speed limit is something you can take or leave there's one more thing to consider:

SPEED LIMIT 55

It's not just a good idea. It's the law.

For Sunday, Jan. 30, 1977

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Stay on the straight and narrow today. This is one of those times when you can't get away with anything — even little white lies.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be particularly careful today if doing business with strangers. Don't buy anything from anyone who isn't willing to stand behind his product 100 per cent

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You could be a bit too wishy-washy today for your own good. You're apt to do all you can to duck a decision.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Turn your back on intrigue today or you may be drawn into a situation that could prove harmful to your reputation.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're very susceptible to flattery today. One who recognizes this will use it to her own end. Take compliments with a grain of salt.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A little bravado will be called for today if you're in a competitive situation. Don't expose your uncertainties.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-oct. 23) It's not likely that others will have faith in your ideas today unless you first have it yourself. They will see through the veneer.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Someone who is wasteful with their possessions and resources will look to you as their benefactor today. You owe the party nothing.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) For the sake of expediency you are likely to make promises today you have small intention of keeping. It would be better for all if you don't.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Usually you can be relied upon to handle your end of the responsibilities. Today, however, you would rather be served than serve.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You could step far out of character today and pretend to be something you aren't. This is very unwise. You're not a convincing actor in the role.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You tend to anticipate the outcome of events far too negatively today. You'll feel a bit foolish later when fears prove unfounded.

Your Birthday, Jan. 30, 1977

Try to make alliances this year with persons whose ideals are in harmony with yours. Unions of this type will have far-reaching favorable effects.

Glass dome planned to protect the Acropolis

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A $40 million air-conditioned glass dome designed by space age genius was proposed Friday to cover Athen's 2,500-year-old Acropolis and save the antiquities there from further decay.

Former Athens Mayor George Plytas said it was a better and more permanent solution than one recently agreed upon between the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization — UNESCO — and the Greek government. That plan provides for many of the antiquities to be removed to museums and replaced on the hill by copies.

The proposed bubble, a model of which was shown reporters, would cover the hill's nearly one-acre surface.

Plytas, who was mayor before the 1967 military coup and is running for the office again, said he had talked to Swiss design experts in Geneva about such a dome and had transmitted the proposal to the Athens government. He said the government of Premier Constantine Caramanlis had agreed to study it and meet the Swiss designers.

"If this plan goes through," Plytas said, "the Acropolis antiquities will be preserved and protected exactly as they are, in their natural environment, avoiding the painful process of having to take them down and substitute them with dummies."

Plytas said five Swiss experts headed by architect Olivier Rossel are due in Athens Feb. 21-28 for talks with UNESCO and Greek government officials, including Caramanlis, who has taken a personal interest in rescuing the Acropolis antiquities.

Astrographs

By Bernice Bede Osol
For Sunday, Jan. 30, 1977

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Stay on the straight and narrow today. This is one of those times when you can't get away with anything — even little white lies.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be particularly careful today if doing business with strangers. Don't buy anything from anyone who isn't willing to stand behind his product 100 per cent

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You could be a bit too wishy-washy today for your own good. You're apt to do all you can to duck a decision.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Turn your back on intrigue today or you may be drawn into a situation that could prove harmful to your reputation.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're very susceptible to flattery today. One who recognizes this will use it to her own end. Take compliments with a grain of salt.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A little bravado will be called for today if you're in a competitive situation. Don't expose your uncertainties.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-oct. 23) It's not likely that others will have faith in your ideas today unless you first have it yourself. They will see through the veneer.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Someone who is wasteful with their possessions and resources will look to you as their benefactor today. You owe the party nothing.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) For the sake of expediency you are likely to make promises today you have small intention of keeping. It would be better for all if you don't.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Usually you can be relied upon to handle your end of the responsibilities. Today, however, you would rather be served than serve.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You could step far out of character today and pretend to be something you aren't. This is very unwise. You're not a convincing actor in the role.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You tend to anticipate the outcome of events far too negatively today. You'll feel a bit foolish later when fears prove unfounded.

Your Birthday, Jan. 30, 1977

Try to make alliances this year with persons whose ideals are in harmony with yours. Unions of this type will have far-reaching favorable effects.

Glass dome planned to protect the Acropolis

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A $40 million air-conditioned glass dome designed by space age genius was proposed Friday to cover Athen's 2,500-year-old Acropolis and save the antiquities there from further decay.

Former Athens Mayor George Plytas said it was a better and more permanent solution than one recently agreed upon between the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization — UNESCO — and the Greek government. That plan provides for many of the antiquities to be removed to museums and replaced on the hill by copies.

The proposed bubble, a model of which was shown reporters, would cover the hill's nearly one-acre surface.

Plytas, who was mayor before the 1967 military coup and is running for the office again, said he had talked to Swiss design experts in Geneva about such a dome and had transmitted the proposal to the Athens government. He said the government of Premier Constantine Caramanlis had agreed to study it and meet the Swiss designers.

"If this plan goes through," Plytas said, "the Acropolis antiquities will be preserved and protected exactly as they are, in their natural environment, avoiding the painful process of having to take them down and substitute them with dummies."

Plytas said five Swiss experts headed by architect Olivier Rossel are due in Athens Feb. 21-28 for talks with UNESCO and Greek government officials, including Caramanlis, who has taken a personal interest in rescuing the Acropolis antiquities.

Film and aviation fan's delight... (Story on pages 4-5)

Doc Peirsol

It happened in Pomona

The Pomona Progress was first with the latest in November 1908 on the Presidential election returns. In fact, it went all out to give Pomona Valley residents the results of the voting. As fast as they were received by the newspaper those results were flashed by stereoptican onto a screen on the street in front of The Progress office where hundreds of eager voters were gathered to get the latest election news. The paper also furnished lantern slides to La Pictoria movie theatre giving the latest vote count, and special Home Telephone lines were reserved to furnish reports to Claremont, Chino and Spadra.

With those early returns showing that Taft had become elected by a land-slide, Pomona's optimistic Republicans became firmly convinced the millennium had finally arrived and that this country's glorious future was, from then on out, a foregone conclusion. Prominent among those optimists was the editor of The Pomona Progress who, in an editorial which appeared on November 26, 1908, stated:

"We are now assured that the people of the United States are not moved by sectional prejudices or class antagonisms and are not subject to the exciting appeals of demogogues. In that assurance we find not only prosperity today but confidence in the endurance of prosperity for the rest of this generation."

Yes, that was the voice of the prophet predicting how things were going to be in the dim distant future when this country would not only be celebrating its Bicentennial but also be in the throes of electing still another President. Unfortunately, however, by some grievous oversight, today's crop of aspiring office seekers were never informed of that 1908 Pomona Progress editor's inspiring predictions. So, although to a degree he may have been correct about future generations not being so easily moved by sectional prejudices and class antagonisms, the exciting appeals of the menagogues are still political facts of life. And those demagogues' oft repeated promises of "enduring prosperity for the rest of this generation" must still be written off as just wishful thinking.

NORITAKE BOWL

Antique-wise

'Noritake' bowl from Japanese

By Dorothy Hammond

QUESTION: I am enclosing a photo of my mother's bowl which she has had for almost fifty years. The bowl measures 9½ inches in diameter and the colors are predominantly brown and orange, with a gold edge. The markings include the letter "M" encircled in a leaf design and the name "Noritake." Can you tell us what bowls like this decorated one might sell for? Mrs. R.W.M.

ANSWER: Your exceedingly fine example of Noritake is worth about $35-$45. It is of Japanese origin, and was imported sometime after the turn of the present century.

QUESTION: I would like information on a open compote purchased at an antique shop in Indiana. The bowl measures 6½ inches high and is 4½ inches in diameter. The color of the glass is electric or cobalt blue and could be either cut or pressed glass. The only mark is the letter "K." Could you tell me what I have? Mrs. M.B.

ANSWER: A pressed glass compote made by the Kemple Glass Company, Kenova, West Virginia. During recent years, the firm has reproduced a variety of fine pattern glass from original molds. Whenever the design allows, the new pieces are clearly marked with the letter "K" on the bottom of each piece, thereby distinguishing the item as a reproduction.

QUESTION: At our daughters insistance, instead of hanging the family heirloom — a beautiful old Victorian light shade — in the dining room of our newly built home — we now have a bright and sparkling new candelabra with six branches.

Our insurance agent would like to purchase the old shade, but we have no idea how much it is worth and neither does he. We are hoping you will be able to tell us. The shade is dome shaped and measures about 20 inches in diameter at the base. There are eight curved amber-white glass panels (these are streaked) held by thin pieces of metal. As you can tell by my drawing, the panels are wide at the base of the shade, becoming quite narrow at the top, then flare out to resemble a crown. There is a wide metal band at the bottom of this shade. It has a pressed-like vine decoration stamped into its surface. Thank you for any information you might have on a lamp shade like ours. Mrs. M.P.

ANSWER: If your Slag panel hanging dome is in very good condition and all panels are original, its value is around $400.

QUESTION: We have a dry sink with splash board, inherited from our parents. The tin liner has been removed as well as numerous layers of paint. To our surprise, the wood is oak — not pine, as most dry sinks. Is the latter the preferred type of wood? Mrs. A.R.

ANSWER: Yes, but since you live in Iowa, and because of the tremendous interest in oak throughout the midwest, your oak dry sink — and they are scarce, is of greater value than if it were made of pine.

QUESTION: The enclosure shows a photo of the Lord's Prayer carved from a ⅛ inch thick piece of wood, using a scroll saw and pen knife. The picture was then placed on black velvet. It was done in 1914 in Boothville, W. Va. by a member of my family. It measures 19½ inches by 23½ inches, and we would like to know what such pictures sell for. L.H.

ANSWER: Framed, around $50.

Stamps in the news

By SYD KRONISH
AP Newsfeatures

The Bailiwick of Guernsey, westernmost of the Channel Islands, is proud of its ancient buildings and has released a new set of pictorial stamps to illustrate famous edifices on its various islands.

The 5-pence shows the Royal Court House in Guernsey. Located on a hill above the main thoroughfare of the capital, the building was completed in 1799. The 7-p depicts Elizabeth College in Guernsey. Named after Elizabeth I, the school opened classes in 1565 with 10 students, but was not completed until 1829.

The 11-p features a view of the residence of the ruler of the island of Sark. It was built in the 16th century but has undergone many alterations since that date. The 13-p illustrates Island Hall in Alderney. Also built in the 16th century, the building has undergone many internal changes but remains virtually untouched outside.

During World War II when Nazi troops occupied the island, it was used as a billet for officers. When the British liberated the Island, the building became a women's voluntary service HQ.

In the upper right corner of each stamp is the vignette profile silhouette of Queen Elizabeth II.

Each year, the Netherlands issues a set of semi-postal stamps dedicated to its Child Welfare Program. The additional values on the stamps go to various children's welfare organizations in that country.

This year, the Post Office Department — on the 50th anniversary of the welfare stamp series — announced a contest for designs on the stamps by children. It was entitled "Draw a Picture." The winning entries now appear on the new stamps.

The 40-c plus 20 shows football players in action. The 45-c plus 20 pictures a modern boat. The 55-c plus 20 features an elephant with a child sitting on its back. The 75-c plus 25 depicts a bus with children.

West Germany has issued four new stamps depicting famous actresses, reports the World Wide Philatelic Agency. Shown on the new stamps are: Caroline Havel (1697-1760) as Medea, Sophie Schroeder (1781-1868) as Sappho, Louise Dumont (1862-1932) as Hedda Gabler, and Hermione Koerner (1878-1960) as Lady Macbeth.

It has been a common occurence in the history of chess for a world champion to avoid top competition, after he has gained the title.

But Soviet grandmaster Anatoly Karpov is an outstanding exception. Not only did he take part in the recent grueling and fiercely fought national championship of his country, but he also succeeded in becoming the first reigning world champion in 25 years to win the U.S.S.R. title, outright.

However, Karpov's victory was not routine. According to Ex-World Champion Michael Botvinnik:

"One cannot say that victory came easy to Anatoly Karpov. He had bad luck at the beginning, and often found himself in a difficult position, while in superior positions sometimes lost his advantage. One gets the impression that his chess form is now not what it was two years ago."

FISCHER-BEATER DOWNS KARPOV

Ewfim Geller, who has several famous victories over Bobby Fischer to his credit in past years, scored a chess masterpiece in round 3 of the U.S.S.R. Championship against Anatoly Karpov.

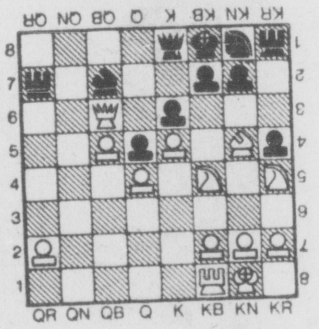

Nursing a cold, Karpov was undoubtedly off form in the first stages of the tournament. But Geller's play was superb. His 25th move, by itself, will be enough to put the game in the anthologies of great games.

Note that if Karpov had played 26 . . . K-B2 instead of QxN, he would have been worse off, after 27.NxRch, K-B2; and 28.N(4)-N6ch.

Doc Peirsol

It happened in Pomona

The Pomona Progress was first with the latest in November 1908 on the Presidential election returns. In fact, it went all out to give Pomona Valley residents the results of the voting. As fast as they were received by the newspaper those results were flashed by stereoptican onto a screen on the street in front of The Progress office where hundreds of eager voters were gathered to get the latest election news. The paper also furnished lantern slides to La Pictoria movie theatre giving the latest vote count, and special Home Telephone lines were reserved to furnish reports to Claremont, Chino and Spadra.

With those early returns showing that Taft had become elected by a land-slide, Pomona's optimistic Republicans became firmly convinced the millennium had finally arrived and that this country's glorious future was, from then on out, a foregone conclusion. Prominent among those optimists was the editor of The Pomona Progress who, in an editorial which appeared on November 26, 1908, stated:

"We are now assured that the people of the United States are not moved by sectional prejudices or class antagonisms and are not subject to the exciting appeals of demogogues. In that assurance we find not only prosperity today but confidence in the endurance of prosperity for the rest of this generation."

Yes, that was the voice of the prophet predicting how things were going to be in the dim distant future when this country would not only be celebrating its Bicentennial but also be in the throes of electing still another President. Unfortunately, however, by some grievous oversight, today's crop of aspiring office seekers were never informed of that 1908 Pomona Progress editor's inspiring predictions. So, although to a degree he may have been correct about future generations not being so easily moved by sectional prejudices and class antagonisms, the exciting appeals of the menagogues are still political facts of life. And those demagogues' oft repeated promises of "enduring prosperity for the rest of this generation" must still be written off as just wishful thinking.

Stamps in the news

By SYD KRONISH
AP Newsfeatures

The Bailiwick of Guernsey, westernmost of the Channel Islands, is proud of its ancient buildings and has released a new set of pictorial stamps to illustrate famous edifices on its various islands.

The 5-pence shows the Royal Court House in Guernsey. Located on a hill above the main thoroughfare of the capital, the building was completed in 1799. The 7-p depicts Elizabeth College in Guernsey. Named after Elizabeth I, the school opened classes in 1565 with 10 students, but was not completed until 1829.

The 11-p features a view of the residence of the ruler of the island of Sark. It was built in the 16th century but has undergone many alterations since that date. The 13-p illustrates Island Hall in Alderney. Also built in the 16th century, the building has undergone many internal changes but remains virtually untouched outside.

During World War II when Nazi troops occupied the island, it was used as a billet for officers. When the British liberated the Island, the building became a women's voluntary service HQ.

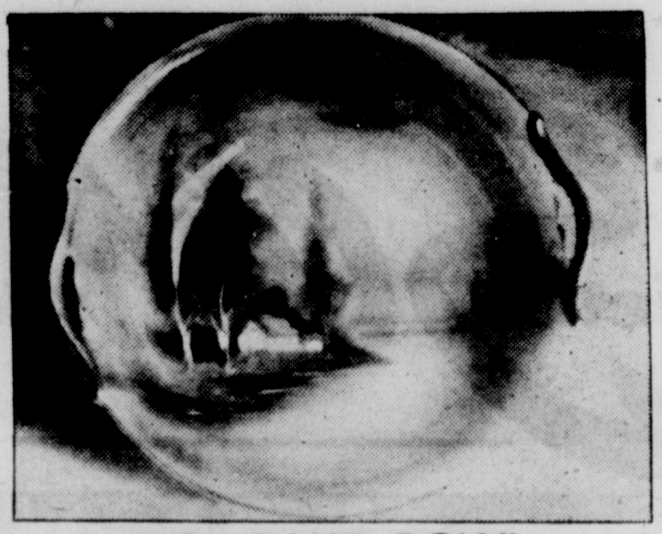

In the upper right corner of each stamp is the vignette profile silhouette of Queen Elizabeth II.

Each year, the Netherlands issues a set of semi-postal stamps dedicated to its Child Welfare Program. The additional values on the stamps go to various children's welfare organizations in that country.

This year, the Post Office Department — on the 50th anniversary of the welfare stamp series — announced a contest for designs on the stamps by children. It was entitled "Draw a Picture." The winning entries now appear on the new stamps.

The 40-c plus 20 shows football players in action. The 45-c plus 20 pictures a modern boat. The 55-c plus 20 features an elephant with a child sitting on its back. The 75-c plus 25 depicts a bus with children.

NORITAKE BOWL

Antique-wise

'Noritake' bowl from Japanese

By Dorothy Hammond

QUESTION: I am enclosing a photo of my mother's bowl which she has had for almost fifty years. The bowl measures 9½ inches in diameter and the colors are predominantly brown and orange, with a gold edge. The markings include the letter "M" encircled in a leaf design and the name "Noritake." Can you tell us what bowls like this decorated one might sell for? Mrs. R.W.M.

ANSWER: Your exceedingly fine example of Noritake is worth about $35-$45. It is of Japanese origin, and was imported sometime after the turn of the present century.

QUESTION: I would like information on a open compote purchased at an antique shop in Indiana. The bowl measures 6½ inches high and is 4½ inches in diameter. The color of the glass is electric or cobalt blue and could be either cut or pressed glass. The only mark is the letter "K." Could you tell me what I have? Mrs. M.B.

ANSWER: A pressed glass compote made by the Kemple Glass Company, Kenova, West Virginia. During recent years, the firm has reproduced a variety of fine pattern glass from original molds. Whenever the design allows, the new pieces are clearly marked with the letter "K" on the bottom of each piece, thereby distinguishing the item as a reproduction.

QUESTION: At our daughters insistance, instead of hanging the family heirloom — a beautiful old Victorian light shade — in the dining room of our newly built home — we now have a bright and sparkling new candelabra with six branches.

Our insurance agent would like to purchase the old shade, but we have no idea how much it is worth and neither does he. We are hoping you will be able to tell us. The shade is dome shaped and measures about 20 inches in diameter at the base. There are eight curved amber-white glass panels (these are streaked) held by thin pieces of metal. As you can tell by my drawing, the panels are wide at the base of the shade, becoming quite narrow at the top, then flare out to resemble a crown. There is a wide metal band at the bottom of this shade. It has a pressed-like vine decoration stamped into its surface. Thank you for any information you might have on a lamp shade like ours. Mrs. M.P.

ANSWER: If your Slag panel hanging dome is in very good condition and all panels are original, its value is around $400.

QUESTION: We have a dry sink with splash board, inherited from our parents. The tin liner has been removed as well as numerous layers of paint. To our surprise, the wood is oak — not pine, as most dry sinks. Is the latter the preferred type of wood? Mrs. A.R.

ANSWER: Yes, but since you live in Iowa, and because of the tremendous interest in oak throughout the midwest, your oak dry sink — and they are scarce, is of greater value than if it were made of pine.

QUESTION: The enclosure shows a photo of the Lord's Prayer carved from a ⅛ inch thick piece of wood, using a scroll saw and pen knife. The picture was then placed on black velvet. It was done in 1914 in Boothville, W. Va. by a member of my family. It measures 19½ inches by 23½ inches, and we would like to know what such pictures sell for. L.H.

ANSWER: Framed, around $50.

Movieland of the Air at the Orange County Airport near Santa Ana houses the world's largest collection of historic planes.

A manikin shows the pilot's position on the replica of the Wright Brothers' biplane.

A quarter-scale model of the Fokker D-VII, top German fighter plane of World War I, is surrounded by posters about movies employing aircraft.

Film and aviation addict's delight

Film fans and aviation addicts can find their two interests colorfully blended in a large hangar marked by a towering missile at the Orange County Airport. This is Movieland of the Air, an aircraft museum housing the world's largest collection of historic planes.

Here, under banner-festooned girders, stands a vast display of aircraft — some authentic, some replicas, some models — from the replica of the canvas-and-wood Bleriot XI, the first plane to cross the English Channel, to a B-25 featured in the movie, "Catch 22."

Most of the planes have been seen in movies, television shows and commercials. To enhance the Hollywood aspect, the large hall is studded with theater spotlights and floodlights, movie cameras, and posters and photographs from the dozens of films that made use of the planes — "Tobruk," "I Wanted Wings," "The Spirit of St. Louis," "Twelve O'Clock High," "Dive Bomber," "Wake Island," "Fighter Squadron" and many more.

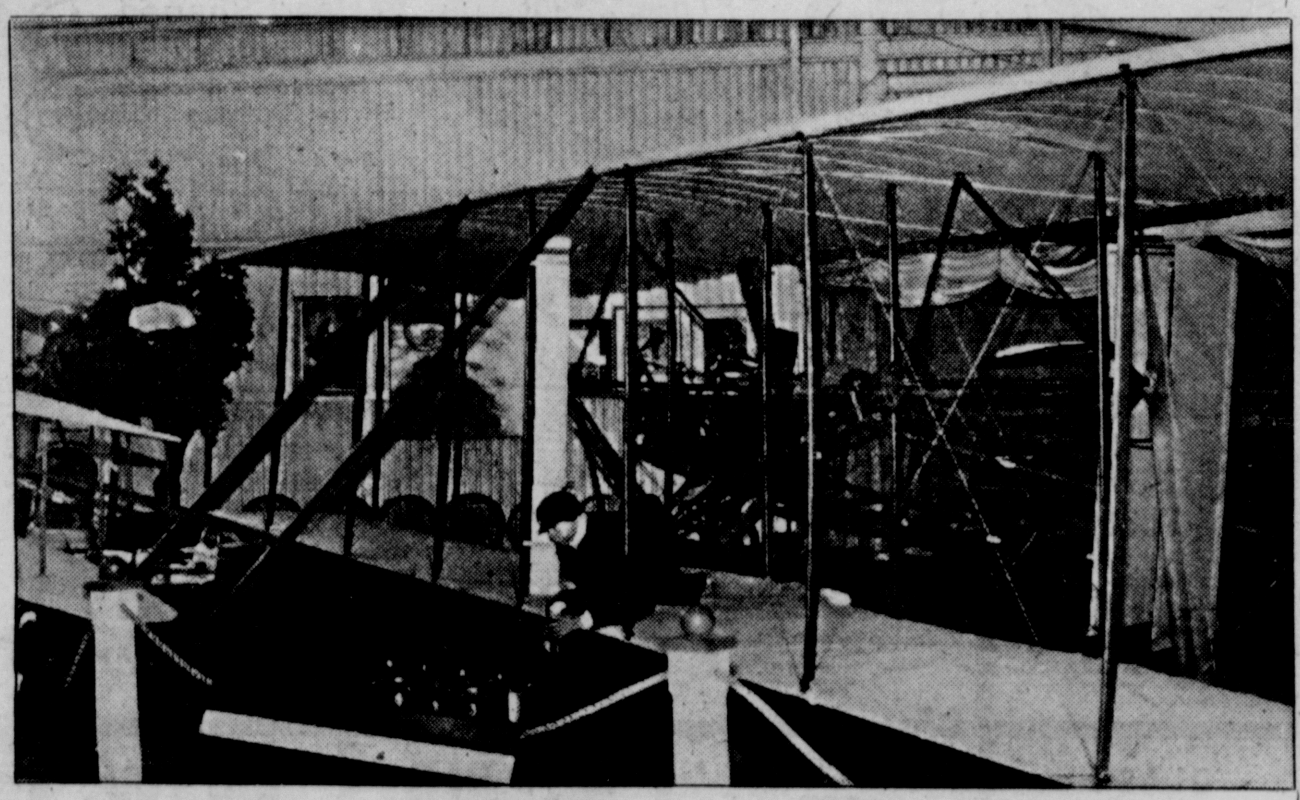

Here is a Fokker D-VII, termed the best all-round German fighter plane of World War I, a replica of the Wright biplane, the 1910 Glenn Curtiss Pusher with a top speed of 53 mph, the P-40N Tomahawk, popularized by the Flying Tigers and used in every theater of war in World War II, and the 1915 Fokker tri-wing which was tested by Baron Manfred Von Richthofen and chosen as his own plane. (He was eventually shot down in it.)

Scattered throughout the museum are engines, bombs, machine guns, fuselages, cockpits, helmets, propellers, plane models and movie posters. Here is the 1918 Navy Orenco with pilot and observer/machine gunner and the flag-draped balloon basket featured in "Around the World in 80

Days." There is the Lafayette Escadrille, an exhibit of medals, books, emblems and models; a mockup of a crashed plane; a German airfield headquarters from World War I, and a large exhibit of mementos and photographs of Charles A. Lindbergh's flight to Paris.

Movieland of the Air was formed in 1962 by Paul Mantz, retired Air Force colonel, and Frank Tallman, former lieutenant commander in the Navy. Mantz was a pilot, stunt man, film director, speed pilot and friend and technical adviser to Amelia Earhart. He was killed in an air crash in 1965 while filming "Flight of the Phoenix."

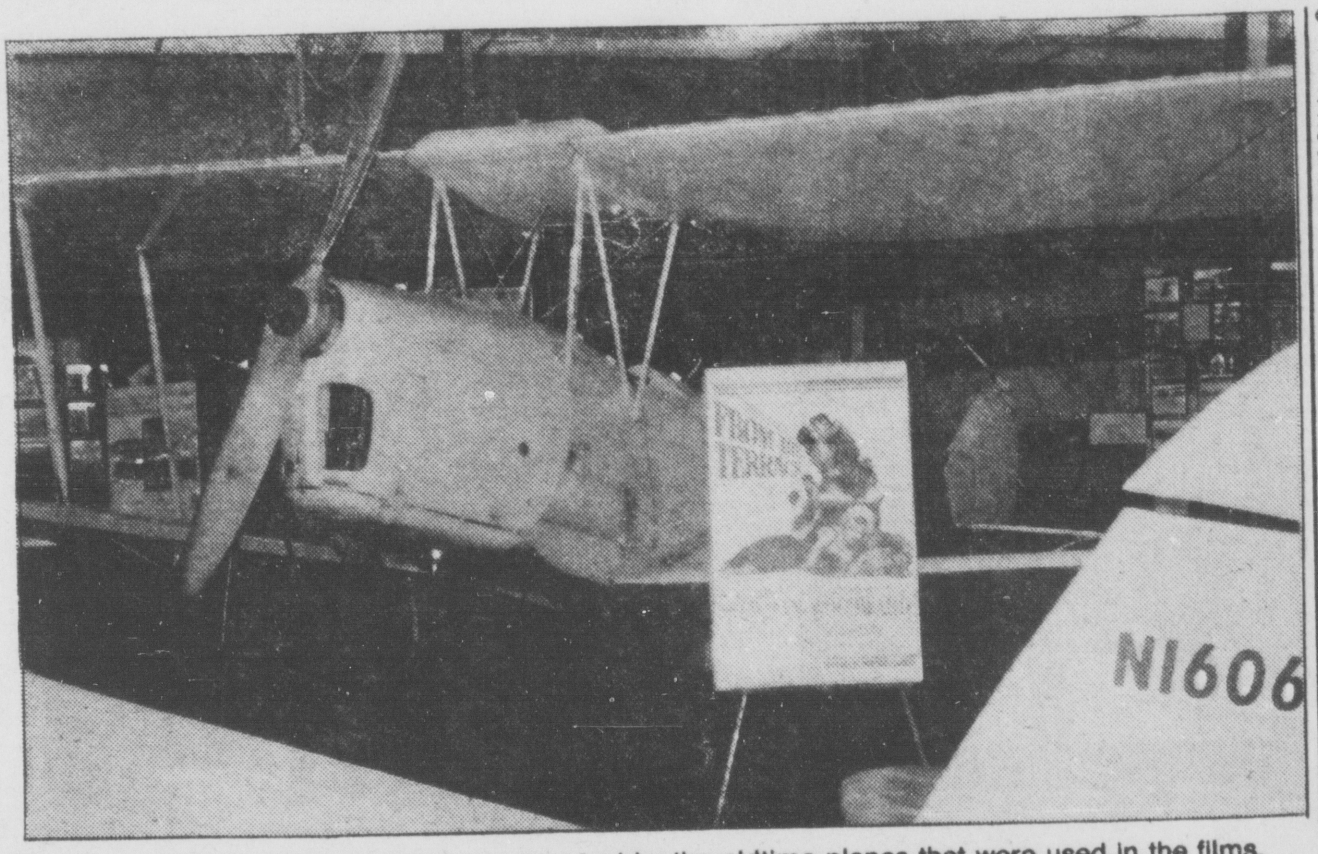

Tallman, termed "the Fred Astaire of the skies" and "the king of the stuntmen," has appeared in 60 major films, including "The Great Waldo Pepper," "Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," "MacArthur," "Amelia Earhart," "Baa Baa Blacksheep" and "Airport '77." He has crashed into a lake for a movie, flown through hangars and under bridges and once through a huge billboard. He has flown 500 different aircraft from the 1909 Bleriot to the Flying Fortress, including hot air ballons, jets, gliders, helicopters and the Goodyear blimp. Ironically he had a leg amputated when he was struck by his son's runaway go-cart, and he now has a special license from the Federal Aviation Authority to pilot planes.

A former wing-walker and parachutist, Tallman prefers the name " precision pilot" to "stuntman." He built an authentic duplicate of Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis and flew it around the Eiffel Tower to commemorate Lindbergh's historic flight. The plane is now installed at San Diego's Balboa Park.

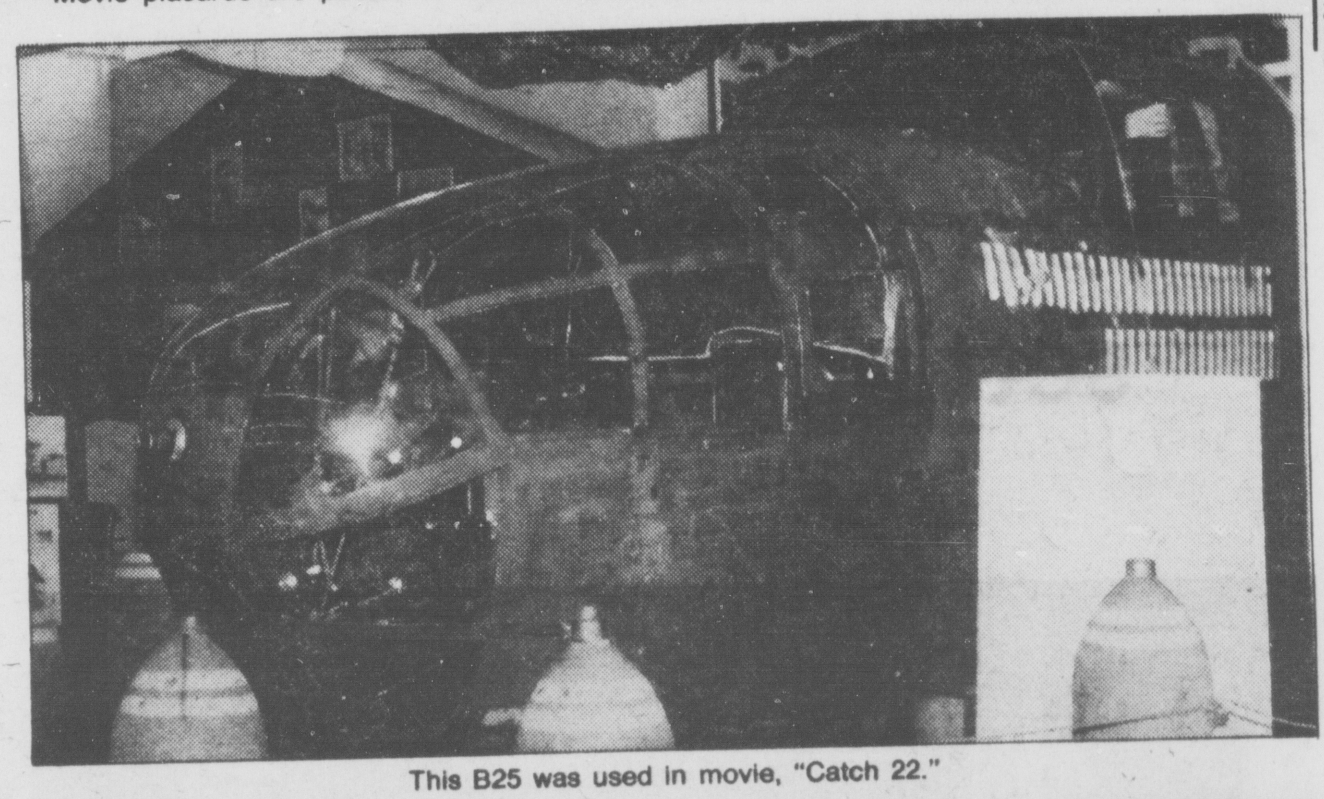

Movieland of the Air is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Monday. Admission is $2.25 for adults, 75 cents for juniors and 50 cents for children.

Days." There is the Lafayette Escadrille, an exhibit of medals, books, emblems and models; a mockup of a crashed plane; a German airfield headquarters from World War I, and a large exhibit of mementos and photographs of Charles A. Lindbergh's flight to Paris.

Movieland of the Air was formed in 1962 by Paul Mantz, retired Air Force colonel, and Frank Tallman, former lieutenant commander in the Navy. Mantz was a pilot, stunt man, film director, speed pilot and friend and technical adviser to Amelia Earhart. He was killed in an air crash in 1965 while filming "Flight of the Phoenix."

Tallman, termed "the Fred Astaire of the skies" and "the king of the stuntmen," has appeared in 60 major films, including "The Great Waldo Pepper," "Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," "MacArthur," "Amelia Earhart," "Baa Baa Blacksheep" and "Airport '77." He has crashed into a lake for a movie, flown through hangars and under bridges and once through a huge billboard. He has flown 500 different aircraft from the 1909 Bleriot to the Flying Fortress, including hot air ballons, jets, gliders, helicopters and the Goodyear blimp. Ironically he had a leg amputated when he was struck by his son's runaway go-cart, and he now has a special license from the Federal Aviation Authority to pilot planes.

A former wing-walker and parachutist, Tallman prefers the name " precision pilot" to "stuntman." He built an authentic duplicate of Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis and flew it around the Eiffel Tower to commemorate Lindbergh's historic flight. The plane is now installed at San Diego's Balboa Park.

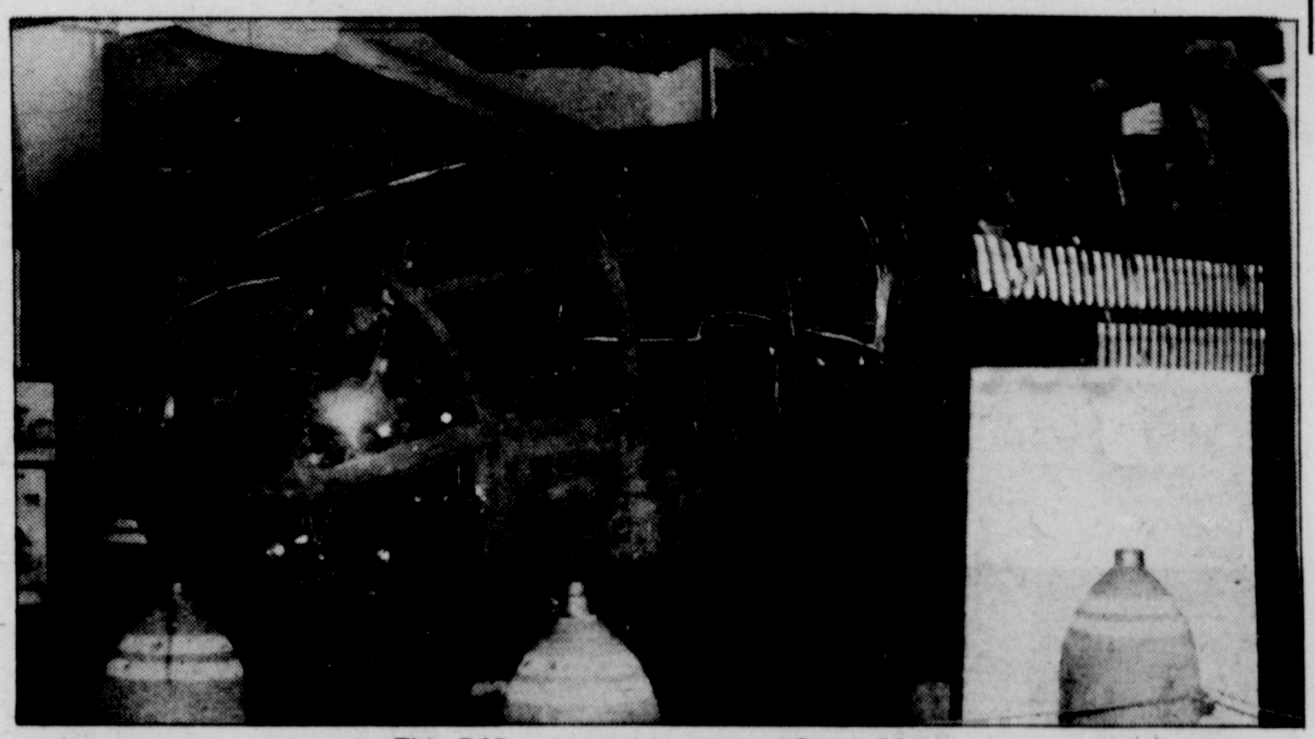

Movieland of the Air is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Monday. Admission is $2.25 for adults, 75 cents for juniors and 50 cents for children.

New valley business setting sights high

Saleswoman Penny Piel, Service Manager Clyde Stephens, Sales Manager Scott Manley, and Office Manager Alan Wayne make up part of A-A Action Awning's staff.

Can hard work, experience and determination result in a successful business?

Valley residents will soon find out, builders Edd Dye said.

A-A Action Awning and Home Service formally opened its doors earlier this month at 259 S. East End Ave. in Pomona. Dye owns it.

He explained: "I selected January to open for two reasons. First, I had decided to expand from Chino late last year so, the formal opening date almost worked itself out. But, the main reason was that a new year carries with it new hope, aspirations and determination and an encouraging attitude toward a new business."

Dye and his associates bring to A-A Action Awning and Home Service a total of more than 20 years of experience in the home service and mobile home business. The firm specializes in awnings, patios, room additions, enclosures, porch construction and plumbing and electrical work.

Sales manager Scott Manley explained the company's policy:

"We are proud to employ some of the best craftsmen in the area and every man is as responsible to us for his work as we are to our customers. A-A Action Awning puts our reputations on the line with every job. We can't afford shoddy, or sub-par work."

Dye has been in the awning and patio business for 12 years. He began in the garage of his home in Chino but the business grew to such an extent that he was forced to expand.

"I must be doing something right," Dye said, "or I'd still be working out of that darned garage."

Activities listed for Ganesha MGM students

By MELISSA CLESCERI
Ganesha Correspondent

The Ganesha MGM (Mentally Gifted Minors) program sponsors many exceptional opportunities for MGM students.

MGM is a federally funded program. This year MGM recieved an increase of $250 over last years' budget of $4,800. This money covers cost of tickets or admission and transportation to the various events MGM students attend.

In order for students to be eligible for the benefits MGM offers, students must have passed the MGM qualifying test. This test is usually given in the first through third grades.

Fran Van Horn is the new adviser for MGM at Ganesha. Mrs. Van Horn has arranged for students to attend many interesting and entertaining as well as educational events.

This year's calendar of events includes four plays at the music center. The first two plays students attended were "A Matter of Gravity" starring Katherine Hepburn and "The Guardsmen" starring Maggie Smith and Brian Bedford.

In February, students will attend "Long Days Journey into Night" starring Debra Kerr and Charleton Heston. Following this will be "Merton of the Movies" starring Richard Thomas and Cindy Williams.

MGM students will attend plays at the Valley Theater in Ontario and the Valley Community Theater. Of all the plays MGM students will be attending, "A Chorus Line" is the most anxiously awaited. It is scheduled to be seen in March, pending district approval.

Other events include several attractions at Mt. San Antonio College, Walnut. Among these are the Ballet International, the Medival Festival, the Inval Dancers of Isreal and the MSAC Planetarium. Plans have also been made to see the Griffith Park Planetarium. Students have already toured the San Onefre nuclear power plant and the Scripps Institution of Marine Biology.

In addition to these events, students will see Aaron Copland conducting the Cal State Fullerton orchestra, and the Renaissance Fair in April.

MGM is also hoping to raise money by selling hot chocolate on campus for a trip to Hearst Castle.

MGM has proven to be beneficial for those Ganesha students who participated. Ganesha has some 100 MGM students, however, less than half actually participate in the field trips.

During fits of temper

Teens accident prone

"A temper that's allowed to burst out in the wrong way at the wrong time and before the wrong people can make the difference between a happy life and a thoroughly miserable one," warns Dr. Michael J. Petite, assistant professor of psychiatry at Georgetown University, in February's Seventeen Magazine.

Though at times honest ire is not only natural, but necessary to allow accumulated tensions to escape, a low boiling point can be a social and occupational handicap, destroying relationships with family, friends, teachers and employers.

Unless anger is understood and managed properly, it can accumulate inside and not only play havoc with the nervous system but produce certain chemical changes in the body. This makes us candidates for a wide range of ailments, from headaches and stomach disorders to exhaustion and depression, which in extreme cases can result in suicide. According to studies, people — particularly teens — are also more accident prone when upset.

TEEN SCOPE

'Disabled' pair succeed

Two students from Alta Loma High School, Danny Brown, junior, and Jim Mathwin, sophomore, have just finished a course in driver education and driver training. Nothing would be unusual about this, normally, except that both students are handicapped and unable to have full use of their arms.

Brown lost his right arm in an accident when he was 8 years old, while Mathwin was born with a birth defect, leaving him with both hands but no arms. Still both students take full schedules and are active. Mathwin is a fullback on the J.V. soccer team and was a member of the frosh-soph football team. Brown enjoys several hobbies which includes riding his bicycle.

"I was a little skeptical about letting them drive at first," said Fred Beal, department chairman of the driver education program, "but when Mathwin showed me the driving attachment that he had to help him steer, I said, 'All right, we'll give it a try'."

The attachment that is used to assist Mathwin and Brown steer the car is about 1½ feet long and 1½ inches wide. It attaches to the inside of the steering wheel at the 12 and 6 o'clock positions. A knob at the 12 o'clock position allows the driver to turn the wheel a whole 360 degrees and still keep control of the car. Mathwin says that he got the attachment at a gas station somewhere in Montclair.

Swap meet set

Reading students at Garey High School in Pomona will hold a swap meet today from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Proceeds will be used to help the students go to Washington, D.C., sometime this spring.

The meet is open to the community. Space rentals are $3.50. General admission is 25 cents. The meet will be held on the student parking lot.

Drill team stages candy sale

Alta Loma High School drill team is selling stick candy on campus and in the community. Money earned will go toward the end-of-the-year banquet at which awards are presented.

Additional money will be used to send girls to drill team camp and purchase equipment and uniforms.

Wanda Courney, drill team adviser, said, "The candy we are selling is good for you; it takes care of the midday munchies."

All the girls are involved in the sale in an attempt to enlarge the drill team for next year. Tryouts will be in March or April.

Gymnastics 'bouncing' back . . .
. . . at Lorbeer junior high

Gymnastics, the sport brought to the attention of the American public by petite, Soviet bloc athletes like Olga Korbut and Nadia Comeneci, is attracting many American enthusiasts, including students at Lorbeer Junior High School in Diamond Bar.

For six years the Lorbeer faculty has been fostering this enthusiasm by offering a constantly growing gymnastics program.

Because of the leadership of Mrs. Sue Martinez, the student body and the PTA, funds have been raised to purchase equipment and to run a good fundamental program.

Lorbeer has been holding intermural meets for the past four years. Now, however, Lorbeer as well as other schools in surrounding communities have enough talent and interest to begin interscholastic competition.

Lorbeer this week announced its first interscholastic invitational gymnastics meet. It will be against Sunflower Junior High School in the Charter Oak School District. It will be held in the Lorbeer gym today from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Big Bridges over the top

The 2,580-seat Bridges Auditorium of the Claremont Colleges, currently undergoing extensive remodeling and refurbishing, will open again this fall, after a two-year hiatus, thanks to a $400,000 grant from the James Irvine Foundation.

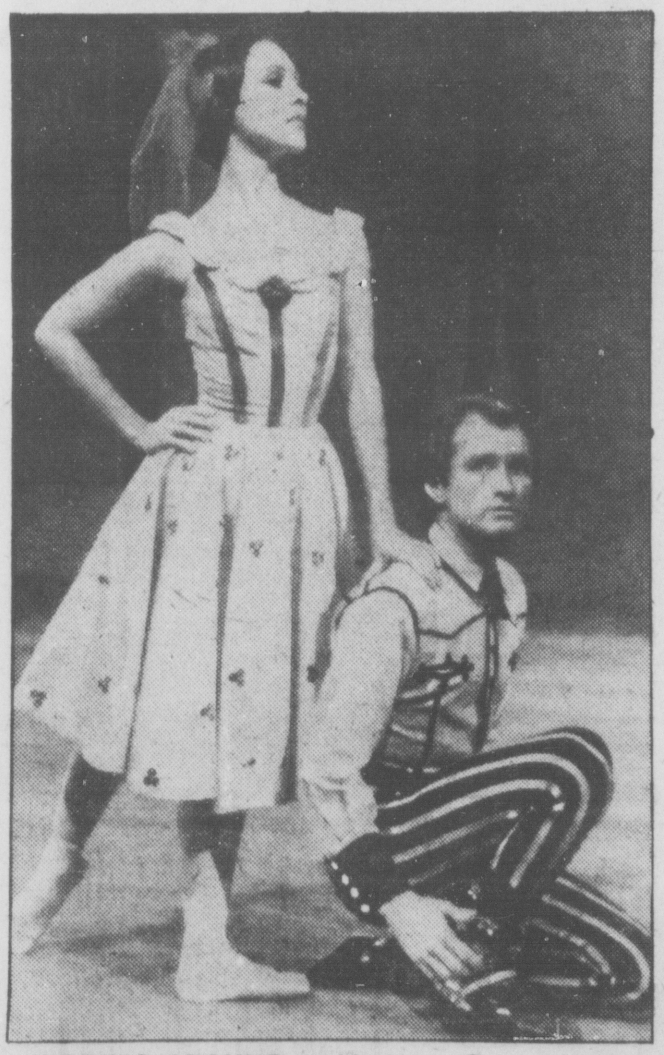

Irvine's grant brings to $1,675,000 the gifts and pledges to the campaign for Bridges. Construction costs are expected to total $1,525,000, leaving $150,000 for audience development and other expenses of reintroducing Bridges into Southern California's culture. Campaign leaders hope to raise another $100,000 for program support, but the Irvine grant completes the drive for construction money.

Jay Doty, director of auditorium events at the colleges, has signed the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra and mezzo-soprano Shirley Verrett for the reopening concert Oct. 22. Zubin Mehta will conduct. The season will be his last with the Los Angeles orchestra before becoming conductor of the New York Philharmonic.

The concert will be the 86th appearance of the Los Angeles Philharmonic in Bridges Auditorium since Artur Rodzinski conducted the first concert there in 1931, the hall's opening season. It will be Miss Verrett's first appearance in Bridges. The black singer made her debut in "Carmen" in 1962, has performed in the world's major opera houses, and, according to Opera News, is "one of today's most sought-after artists."

Bridges closed in September 1975 for renovation after 44 years, during which some of the world's most renowned musicians, singers, actors, dancers and public figures appeared on its stage. The main consideration in the closing was a requirement for nearly $400,000 worth of equipment and reconstruction to meet fire regulations. The rest of the $1,525,000 is paying for a new grand drape, overhaul of stage equipment and lighting, an elevator and a front ramp for handicapped persons, and a general refurbishing of paint and furnishings. The work began last summer.

Claremont University Center, the central coordinating institution of the Claremont Colleges, operates Bridges not only for the 5,000 students and 2,300 faculty and staff people of the six colleges but for a broad community around Claremont.

KIDDING AROUND — Marianna Tcherkassky and Terry Orr star in the American Ballet Theater production of "Billy the Kid," to be presented in the Pavilion of the Los Angeles Music Center Feb. 22 and 26, both matinees.

Lamhut troupe at Riverside

The Phyllis Lamhut Dance Company will perform in the University Theater of UC Riverside at 8 p.m. Friday.

The New York-based company, including Lamhut and 11 other dancers, is in the midst of its third national tour season. Tickets for the performance cost $5, $4 and $3.

As featured dancer for many years with the Alwin Nikolais and Murray Louis dance companies, Lamhut has appeared all over the world on concert stage and television. She received professional training with Nikolais and Merce Cunningham, and has studied ballet at the American Ballet Center.

In 1969, after more than 20 years of professional dancing in a company, she went off on her own as solo performer and choreographer. In 1974 she took her group of 11 dancers on its first extended tour, giving concerts, classes and lecture-demonstrations under auspices of the National Endowment for the Arts.

The comedic touches for which Lamhut has become best known are most apparent in "Hearts of Palm," opening work in the UCR concert which she dedicated to the late choreographer James Waring.

A zany cartoon-like sequence of vignettes that debuted in New York last April, "Hearts of Palm" takes place in the lobby of a '30s-movie ballroom, focusing nostalgically on the people and the dance steps of a campy era. Lamhut's appearance as a chiffon-wrapped vamp provides a centerpiece for the four-part work.

"Solo with Company," second on the program, features Lamhut and six dancers in a precision exercise of structure and pattern.

"Conclave," the eight-part finale, is a series of free-association episodes punctuated by the scurrying of masked dancers with Hollywood-type wooden clappers in hand. The dramatic is again mixed with the comic in a varied presentation.

Big Bridges over the top

The 2,580-seat Bridges Auditorium of the Claremont Colleges, currently undergoing extensive remodeling and refurbishing, will open again this fall, after a two-year hiatus, thanks to a $400,000 grant from the James Irvine Foundation.

Irvine's grant brings to $1,675,000 the gifts and pledges to the campaign for Bridges. Construction costs are expected to total $1,525,000, leaving $150,000 for audience development and other expenses of reintroducing Bridges into Southern California's culture. Campaign leaders hope to raise another $100,000 for program support, but the Irvine grant completes the drive for construction money.

Jay Doty, director of auditorium events at the colleges, has signed the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra and mezzo-soprano Shirley Verrett for the reopening concert Oct. 22. Zubin Mehta will conduct. The season will be his last with the Los Angeles orchestra before becoming conductor of the New York Philharmonic.

The concert will be the 86th appearance of the Los Angeles Philharmonic in Bridges Auditorium since Artur Rodzinski conducted the first concert there in 1931, the hall's opening season. It will be Miss Verrett's first appearance in Bridges. The black singer made her debut in "Carmen" in 1962, has performed in the world's major opera houses, and, according to Opera News, is "one of today's most sought-after artists."
